Robert,
Well, you've done quite well for yourself this year, haven't you? It has been great knowing and being friends with you this year. I don't need to tell you about last year because it seems you already have quite a bit. So here, you about next year because it seems and a great year you have quite a wonderful summer.
Terry Dahyapple

Robert,
You should feel very honored because you were lucky enough to be in my Biology class this year.
Good luck you need it.
Your friend
James

Jones

Robert,
It has been fun knowing you
this year, and last,
and the year after that, and the year after that etc.
P.S. See you next year if you are lucky

Robert,
I've enjoyed getting to know you this past year.
You're a great guy so stay that way. Best of luck to you as a junior 'cause you'll need it.
Keep playing that chess!
May God Bless.

Love a friend
Debbie Jones

Robert,
you're a real swif guy, and I've really enjoyed knowing you. Good luck on the future years and good luck with your chess matches. So good!
Friend,
Dicky Alco

Robert

Robert,

It's been great having you
in my homeroom this year.
Except for your great need to gamble you'll probably go far, maybe even Sen. Lurton.

Luck,

Clay Gardner

Robert,

I guess it's been sorta good knowing you this year.
You think you a great chess player but that's all you know this is the Champ. maybe you'll be as good as
me someday well
Well see you someday.

Don Gardner

Robert,

It's been great having you in Biology this past year. You will probably always remember the expressions on mine and Kathy's face while dissecting the frog and the other things. I hope you have everything you ever want in life because you deserve it.

A friend always,
Connie

Robert,

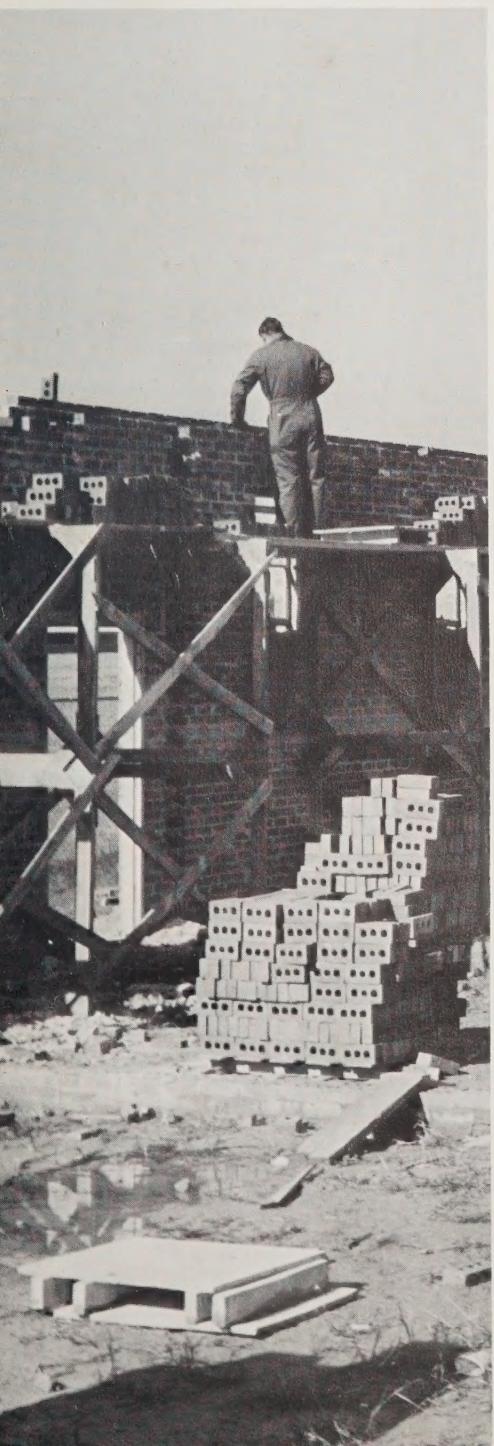

I have enjoyed being in your
Algebra 3, English class.
a nice
you will go far in life.
Bless a sweet guy friend.

'69 ARIES PRESENTS

“GROWING ADOLESCENTS” —MATURITY

“When I was a child, I spake as a child,
I understood as a child,
I thought as a child:
but when I became a man,
I put away childish things.
For now we see through a glass, darkly;
But then face to face.”

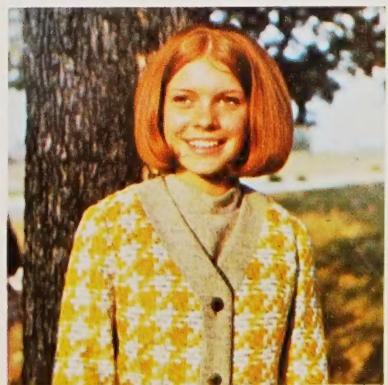

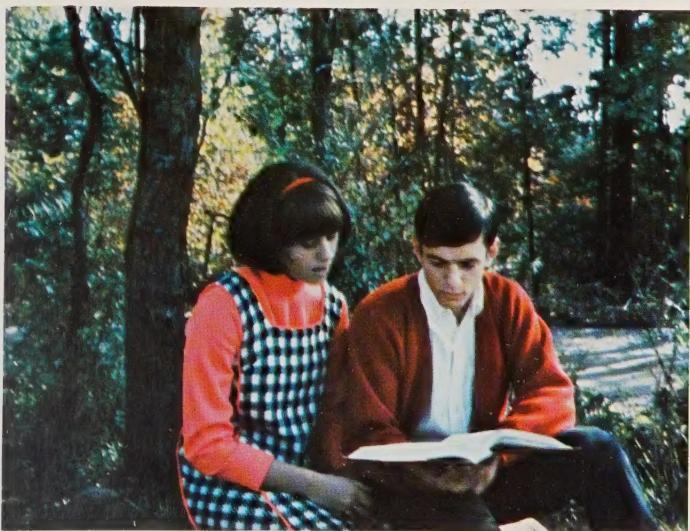

Apostle Paul

Northeast Guilford
Senior High School

McLeansville, North Carolina

The '69 Aries presents the activities of the "Growing Adolescent". We tried to personify the physical strength of today's student and arouse their mentality to its highest extent. Ever changing in their ways and challenging the unknown, the students of NORTHEAST are prime examples of the reflection youth have on today's society.

A flowering bouquet and glittering trophy are the beauties of Homecoming.

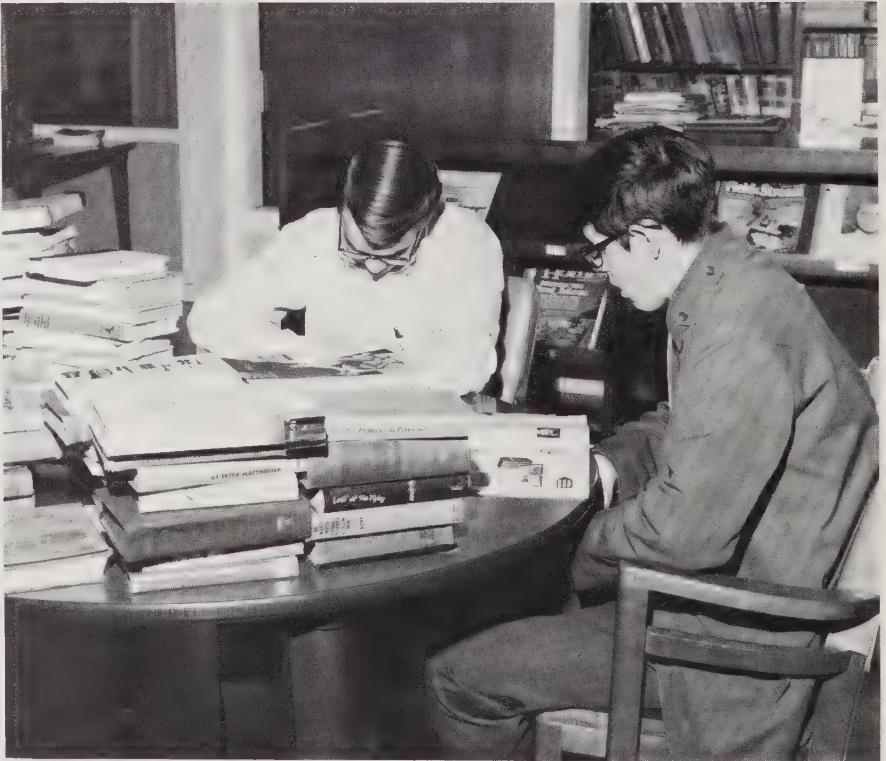

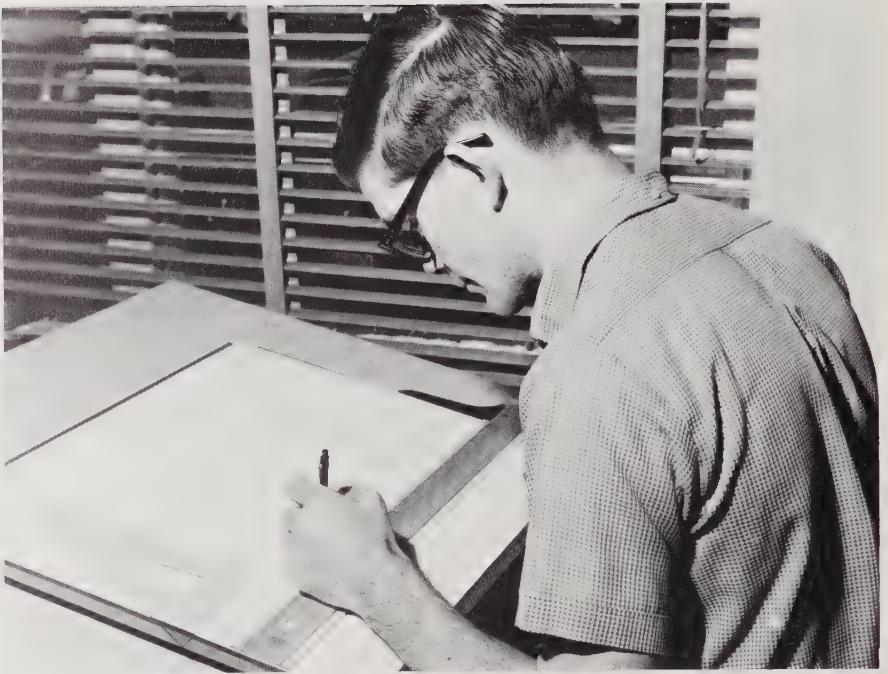

Rod Troxler and teammates try to elude their opponent's defense.

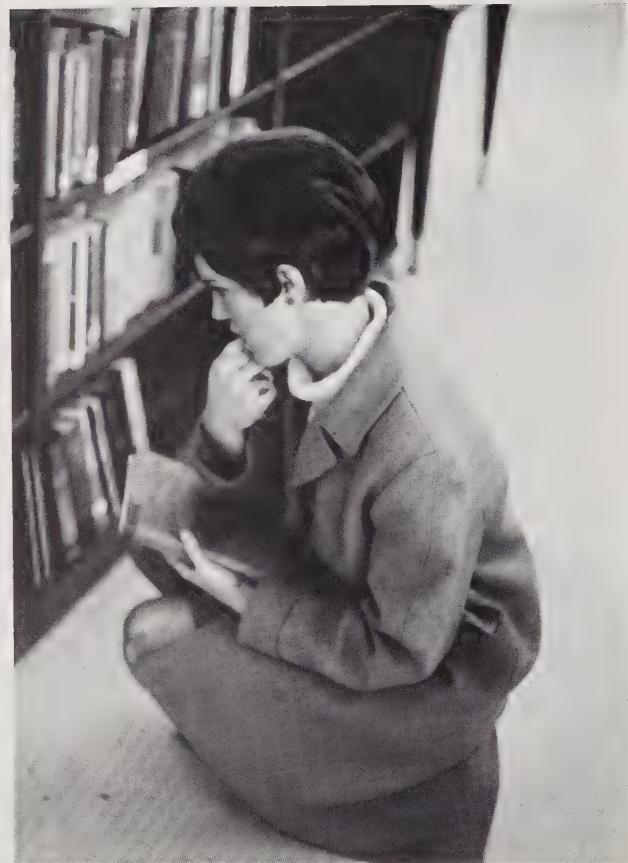

Time is reluctant . . .
Studies must continue . . .
Students turn to professionals
As time seems to awaken
And pass life by

With each perpetual moment
Boy masters time,
In occupations . . .
In the precision of drills
And boy awakens to capture
Life and time, to prevent
It from passing his manhood

Our minds are always functioning,
In participation of school functions,
An enthused spectator . . .
Perhaps for a moment of relaxation . . .
But most of all, always resolving to increase one's capacity
Of the world in which we live

Accepting the task of responsibilities,
To act with respect . . . .
To be punctual in appearance,
Obedient . . . Poised . . . Mature

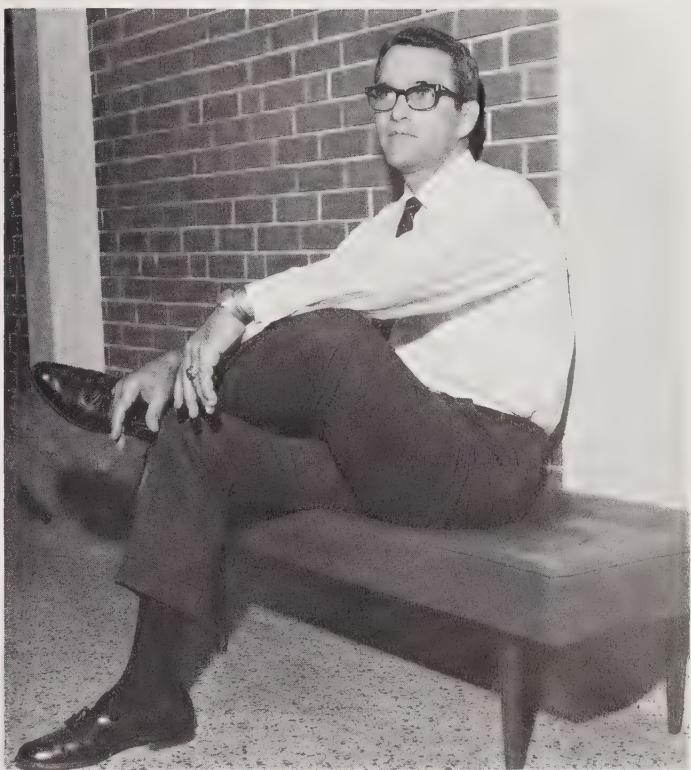

Mr. L.S. Dockery

Mr. Dockery Provides a Shining Example of the Spirit at N.H.S.

Mr. Dockery arrives early every morning to take over the pressing work that administration requires.

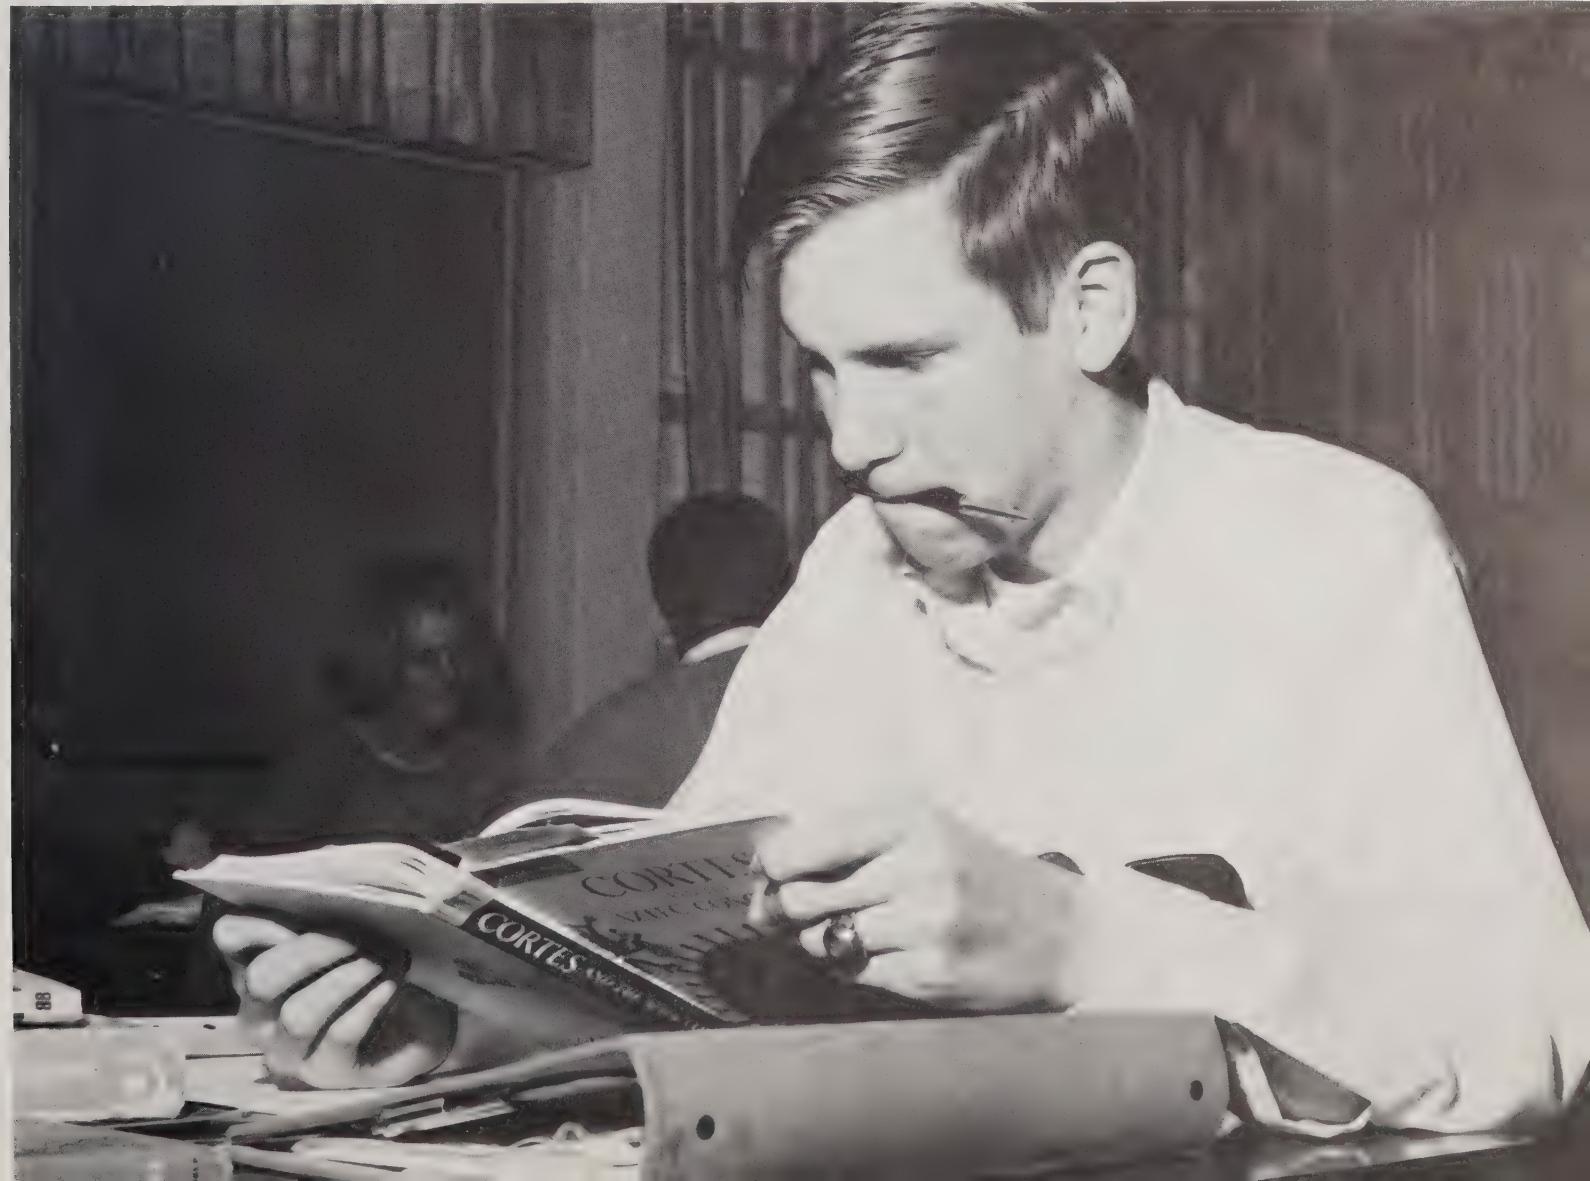

Even principals need a break to release the tensions of a hectic day. Mr. Dockery manages this after the school day is over.

One of the duties of a principal is dictating important letters. Mr. Dockery does not shrink from this responsibility.

Mr. Dockery manages Northeast with firmness while earning respect from his students. Because of his high values, Northeast has come to be recognized as quite a unique school. As a result of his drive and stamina, Northeast is one of the best schools in Guilford County. Since Mr. Dockery wants the students at Northeast to be better prepared for the future, his faculty is one of the best. Because of these factors, we the students of Northeast Senior High School can be proud of Northeast and its principal.

ADMINISTRATION

Dedication

Mr. Jones holds "Math races" to improve the skills of his students and then posts the grades to help make students conscientious of low grades. Having attended Appalachian State University, Mr. Jones earned a degree in Physical Education and Math. His enthusiasm in sports reveals his enjoyment in them.

Mr. Jones and Mr. Webster choose the most capable students to try for their bus licenses. Mr. Jones is aware of the responsibilities bus drivers shoulder... the responsibility of transporting students to and from school, and filling out bus reports. Because of these important qualities Mr. Jones must be acquainted with the students and choose the most trustworthy ones. Bus drivers are proud of their jobs and of their friendship with Mr. Jones.

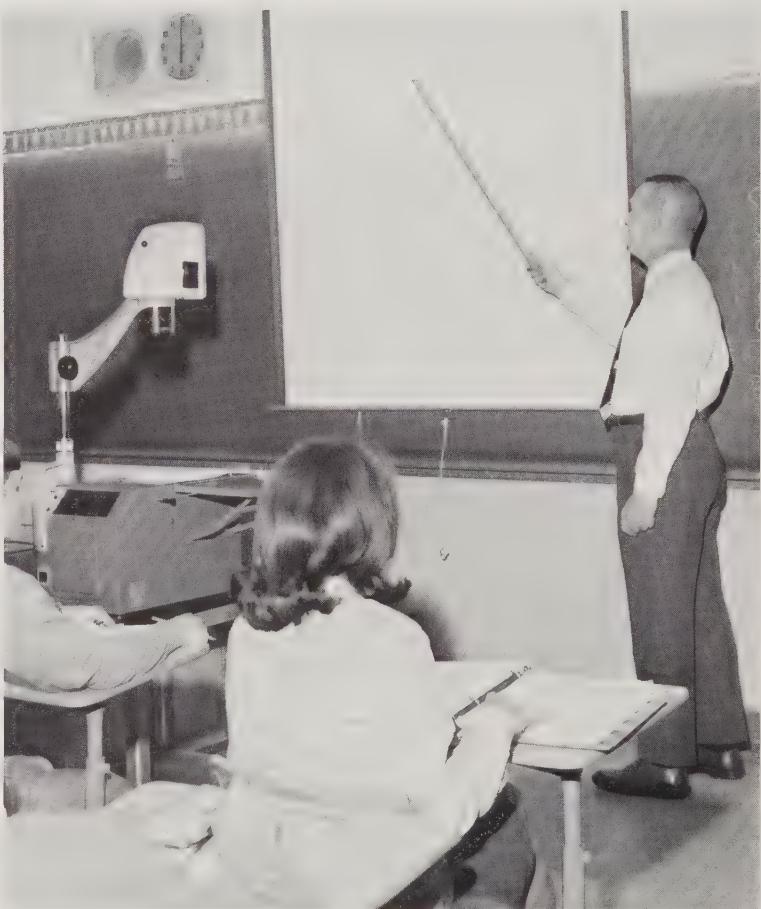

Minta Shanks is congratulated on receiving her bus license.

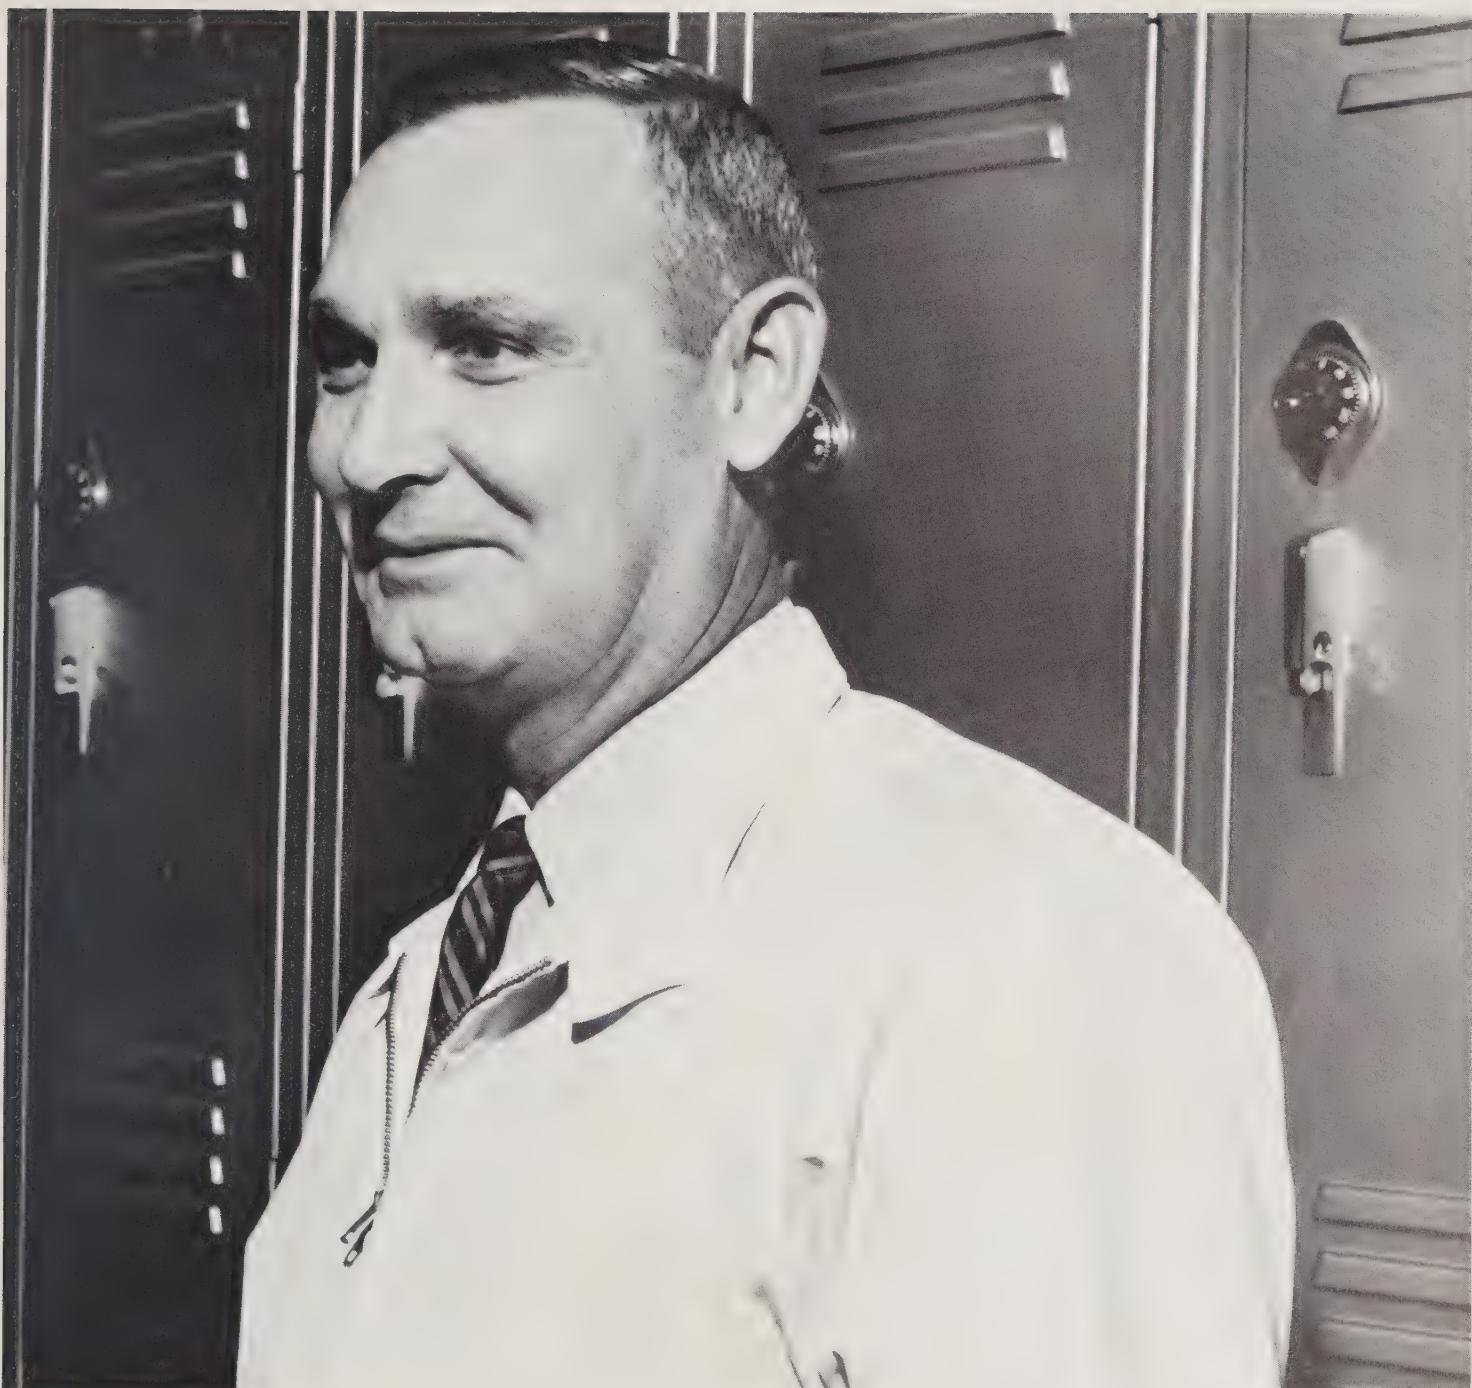

Homework grades are posted, good or bad.

"Now, girls, driving a bus is a big responsibility!"

The opaque projector is a new method in helping Mr. Jones explain Consumer Math.

A warm smile, a kind hello, worries over buses, bus reports due, classes to teach—all this describes Mr. Howard Jones.

For seven years Mr. Jones has dedicated himself to the betterment of Northeast Senior High School. Even with the full responsibility of transporting students to McLeansville, Rankin, Monticello, Brown Summit and Northeast, Mr. Jones has made our bus system the best in Guilford County. Because of his experienced teaching of Algebra and Consumer Math, students have gained a better knowledge of these courses. From his personal help to students, he has won the hearts of the entire student body.

For these things, we, the 1969 Annual Staff, dedicate this seventh volume of the Aries to Mr. Howard Jones to show our sincere appreciation for the many things he has done.

Ardent Supporters of our school.

The school Committee at Northeast supports fully the ideals of this school. Each member tries his best to further the programs started here. The members are E. E. Dean, W. G. Smith, L. F. Shaw, W. A. Saunders, and T. R. Sockwell, Chairman.

Working behind the scenes for progressive education of Guilford County students is Mr. E. P. Pierce. The result of Mr. Pierce's efforts to advance and improve our local school system have been revealed in the high quality of education the students of Guilford County can now receive.

Much work and time have gone into the process of having a successful county school system. By his many contributions our school system will continue to be among the best.

As Superintendent of Guilford County Schools, Mr. E. P. Pierce has many problems to handle.

Janitors and Cooks meet needs of the school.

Many hours are spent in preparation for the lunches we have at N.H.S. Experience and time are put into this successful lunch program.

Mrs. Cox instructs and formulates successful ideas for lunches.

The janitors work under the supervision of Mr. Lowe to help keep things orderly.

The janitors help beautify Northeast by keeping the halls and classrooms in shape.

Mr. Wagner . . . a friend of the Student Body

Mr. Wagner helps Sophomores who face the agony of jammed lockers.

Making announcements over the P.A. system to the student body is an everyday ritual for Mr. Wagner.

Students greet Mr. Wagner with a smile as he strolls through the lunch room before and after lunch.

As a busy Assistant Principal, Mr. Wagner has to confer with parents, students, and other important callers.

Mrs. Smith files cards efficiently and with ease.

Secretaries Aid the Administration

Typing the absentee report and business letters, taking dictation from Mr. Dockery, answering the phone, passing out hall passes . . . These are just a few jobs of the N.H.S. secretaries.

Mrs. Hall and Mrs. Smith make going to the office more durable. They always smile and tell you to go on back to Mr. Dockery's office. After the ordeal they cheerfully say "Good-bye!".

All kidding aside, our two secretaries are the best. Mrs. Smith is only part-time, but that part really keeps her busy. Mrs. Hall has worked at N.H.S. for seven years. We really appreciate our secretaries and want them to know that we enjoy and respect them very much.

Without our secretaries, our school would be very lost. They work well together and all of the students here at Northeast Senior High School would like to say that we have the best secretaries around and are proud of them. They have captured our hearts and they will always have a place in them. Their warm smiles and cheery personalities have made us forget our problems and lift our spirits.

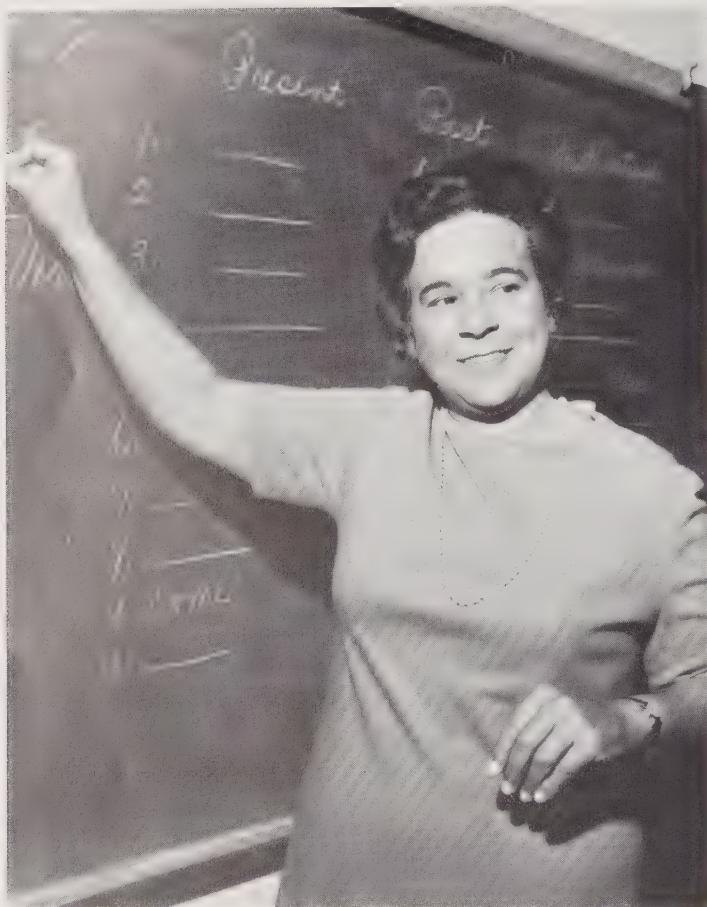

Mrs. Hall types the daily reports first thing in the morning for Mr. Dockery and Mr. Wagner.

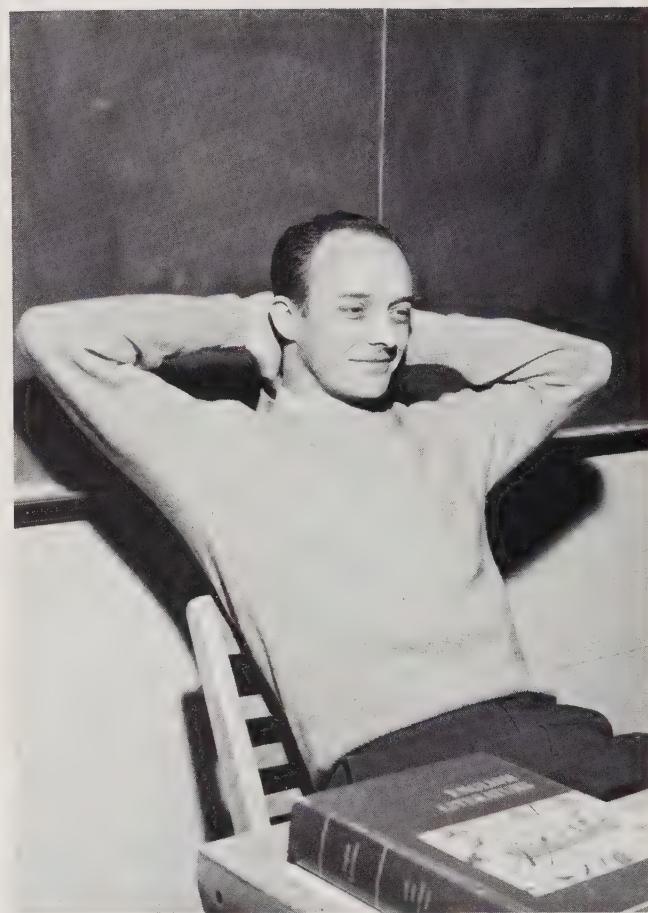

Checking and giving out mail are some of the everyday jobs of our secretaries.

English . . . Way to Communication

Mrs. Irene Booker has returned for a second year at Northeast. She obtained her B.S. degree from Agricultural and Technical State University. She instructs classes in English II.

Back for a third year is Mr. John Cullers. He received his B.S. degree from Appalachian State University. He teaches classes in English III and is sponsor to the Aries Staff.

"...Not that I loved Caeser less, but that I loved Rome more. Had you rather Caeser were living and die all slaves, than that Caeser were dead, to live all free men?"

Each year the English classes put emphasis on one main concept of thought. Sophomores obtain their basic knowledge of Shakespeare from the study of Julius Caesar, which reflects Shakespeare's philosophy of life.

Juniors further their knowledge of plays through Our Town. Our Town encourages students to use their imagination.

The study of renowned plays comes to an end with Shakespeare's Macbeth, a tragedy. Seniors discover that Macbeth achieves his goal through foul play, therefore, he is never content with the title he wears. "...Thou canst not say I did it. Never shake Thy gory locks at me."

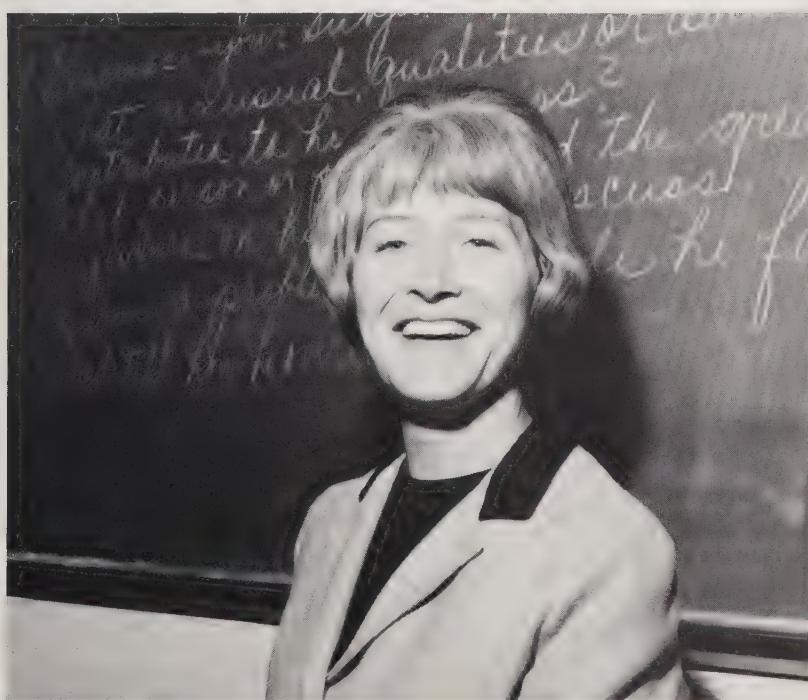

Mrs. Imogene Hegner is kept busy teaching English IV. She also sponsors the National Honor Society. Mrs. Hegner received her B.A. degree from the University of North Carolina at Greensboro.

Mrs. Virginia Snyder spends her time teaching English II and Journalism. Mrs. Snyder graduated from Appalachian State University with a B.S. degree in English. She is advisor to the Rampages.

Arriving new this year is Mrs. Beverly McGimsey. She graduated from Lenoir Rhyne College with an A.B. degree in English. She teaches English IV and is advisor to the Rampages.

Mrs. Miriam Taylor devotes her time to teaching English III. She obtained her M.A.T. degree from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

Fine Arts, The Spice of Life

This is Mrs. Mary Alston's second year at Northeast. She graduated from North Carolina College with a B.A. degree in Social Science and Library Science. Mrs. Alston is part-time librarian at Northeast.

Mr. Franklin Bullard graduated from East Carolina University with a B.S. degree in Instrumental Music. He instructs the band at Northeast.

This is Miss Linda Connelly's second year at Northeast. She instructs Speech and Drama I and II, and English II. She obtained her B.A. degree in English from North Carolina State University. She is sponsor to the National Forensic League and the Student Council.

Mrs. Bronna Graham received her B.S. degree in English and Library Science from East Carolina University. She has been the Librarian at Northeast for four years.

Miss Llewellyn Green obtained her A.B. degree from Greensboro College. She instructs Art classes at Northeast.

This year Mrs. Dorothy Richmond is teaching Chorus and English III. Her B.S. degree was obtained from Agricultural and Technical State University.

Probing, Learning, and Using the Laws and Theories of Science

Mr. Bob Boles is returning for his seventh year at Northeast. He received his B.S. degree from High Point College in Physical Education. He teaches Physical Education and Senior Science.

Returning for another year at Northeast is Mrs. Ann Hinshaw. She instructs classes in Chemistry and Physics. She received her B.A. degree in Chemistry from UNC-G.

Mr. Roland Andrews graduated from Western Carolina University with a B.A. degree in Physical Education. He instructs General Biology along with coaching football and basketball.

Mr. P. Mack Walker teaches classes in Biology and Advanced Biology. He graduated from the University of Rochester with a M.S. degree in Biology. He is the sponsor of the Science Club.

Another new face at Northeast is Mr. William Rush, Jr. Upon graduation he obtained his A.B. degree from Central Wesleyan College. He instructs classes in General Biology.

Foreign Languages spark interest in other countries

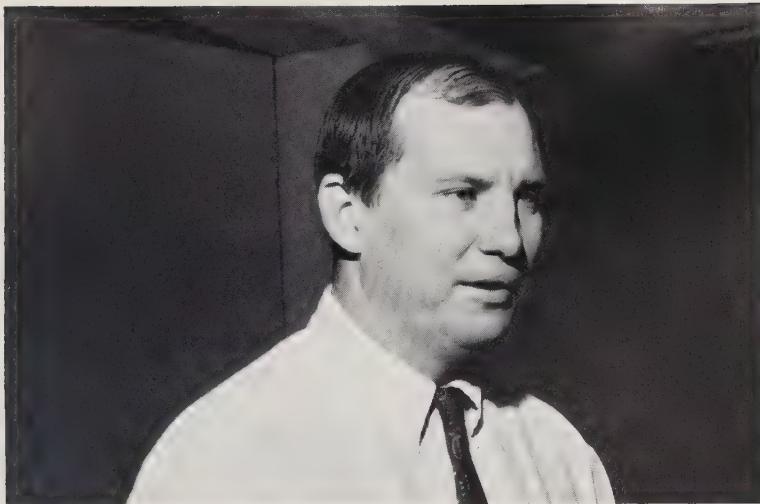

Mrs. Pearl N. Woellner devotes her time to French classes I and II. She received her A.B. in French at Guilford College.

Responsible students discover that it is a challenge to learn and master a foreign language. A foreign language is not only a requirement for most colleges, but it provides an opportunity for students to compare foreign cultures with American cultures. Foreign language requires extensive use of the language lab. Students listen to the tapes striving to speak as fluently as the native countrymen.

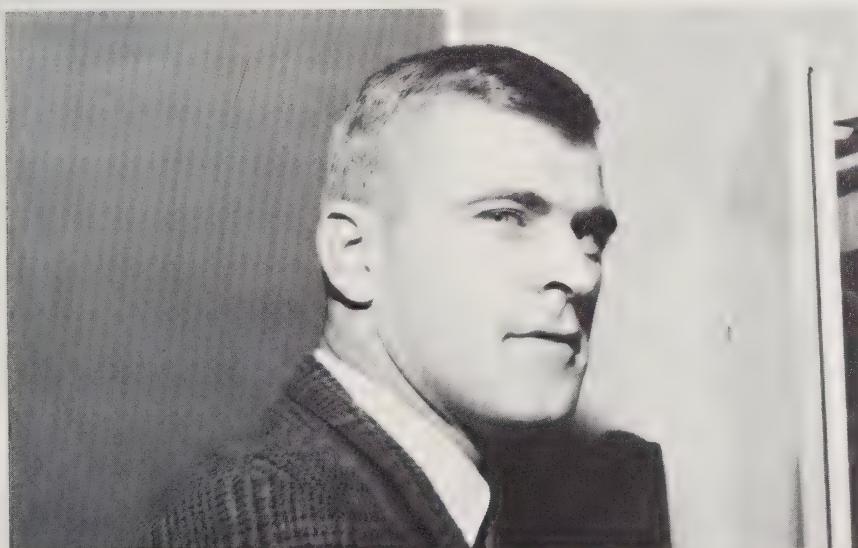

Northeast offers a beneficial program for students interested in a foreign language.

Mrs. Linda Kaiser instructs Spanish I and II classes as well as English II classes. She received her A.B. degree in Spanish Education at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

Mr. Guzinski received his A.B.T. degree at High Point College, majoring in Physical Education. He instructs Physical Education and Economics and Sociology at Northeast. He is advisor to the Junior Civitans.

Mr. Morgan devotes his time instructing U.S. history, track, and football. He received his B.S. in Physical Education and History at Atlantic Christian College.

History teaches Appreciation of Home and Country

There are numerous divisions of Social Studies which disclose past and present events. United States history enables students to acquire knowledge about their ancestors, country, and governmental functions. A course in history stresses the hardships our forefathers faced in founding and establishing our freedom. Each figure plays an important role because he contributed to our ideals of freedom.

Courses in Civics, World History, Economics and Sociology, and World Geography discuss present day happenings . . . how our government is run, the study of different countries and the culture of each country.

Each day a new page is added to our history books. History is a part of us.

Mrs. Helen Sockwell received her A.B. degree in History and English from High Point College. She instructs United States History and World History.

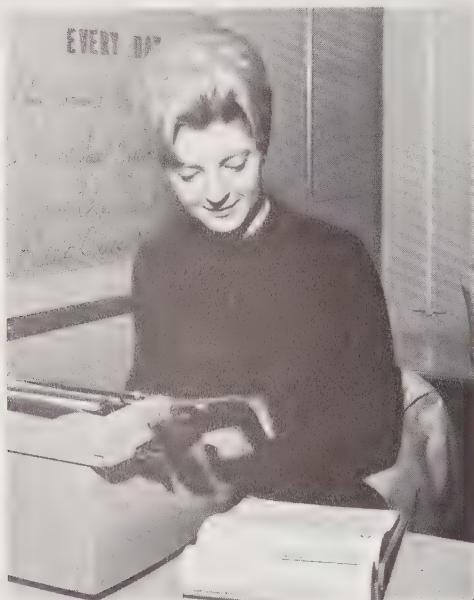

Mrs. Judith K. Herring received her B.A. degree in History at UNC-G. She teaches World Geography and U.S. History.

Mr. Larry Wilson received his A.B. degree in Social Studies from High Point College. He teaches U.S. History at Northeast.

Practice perfects speed and accuracy

Mrs. Charlene Barham received her B.S.S.A. in Business Education at UNC-G. She teaches Typing I and Personal Typing. Mrs. Barham is the sponsor of the Future Business Leaders of America club.

Miss Sandra Parker received her B.S. degree in Economics and Business Education from Appalachian State University. She instructs classes in Personal Typing and General Business.

Having received her B.S.S.A. from UNC-G., Mrs. Leta Pillion, instructs Typing II, Bookkeeping, and Law and Communication classes.

Mrs. Barbara Raleigh has a B.A. degree in Business Education from Bennett College. She teaches Office Practice, Shorthand I, and Typing I and II.

At Northeast, many courses are given to benefit students. Most business teachers encourage students not planning to attend college to take some type of business courses. Not only will this give needed credits to a student, but it will greatly help when planning to seek a job and profession. Those people planning to attend college should also take a few business courses. When those long themes, essays, and term papers start coming in, typing skills will prove to be quite handy. So no matter what your plans are in life, a knowledge of the business world can be an asset to any person. Each individual needs to take some type of business course in order to get ahead in this world.

Mrs. Barham, Mrs. Pillion, Mrs. Raleigh, and Miss Parker are all capable of teaching a student anything he needs to know about the business world. They are always willing to help a person who will come to them.

In typing classes, students remain very busy all through the class. They know good typing speed merits concentration.

Math provokes thought in students

Math is a required subject at Northeast. College preparatory students receive a beneficial math background for college by taking Algebra I, Algebra II, Geometry, and Advanced Algebra and Trigonometry. Math is essential to students going into the field of Science or Mathematics. Our Math teachers are capable of training students in the many branches of mathematics.

Mr. Jones, Mrs. Lail, Miss Flenniken, and Mr. White put their whole selves into teaching Math.

Students that are not planning to attend college may take Consumer Math and Senior Math. This year for the first time, Senior Math is offered at Northeast.

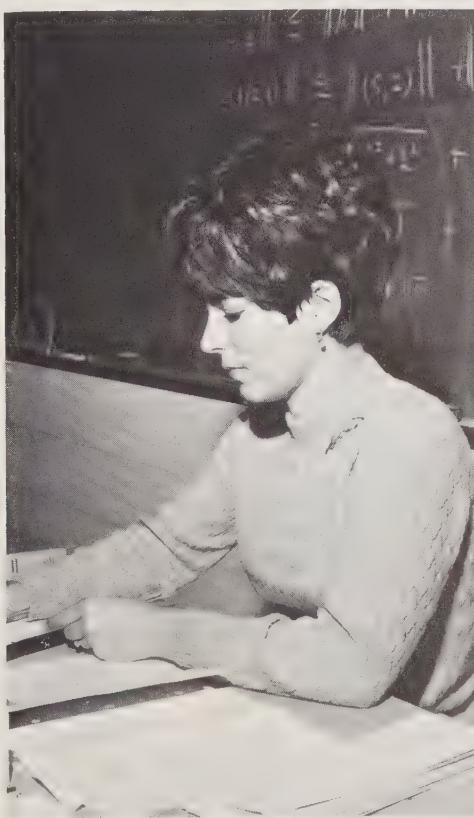

Although Math is required, it can be enjoyable. Bulletin boards, cute number games, and other interesting things make Math come alive to the students. All students, no matter what their career may be, benefit from taking some kind of Math.

Miss Wanda Flenniken is teaching Algebra I and Algebra II. She graduated from Appalachian State University with a B.S. degree in Mathematics. She sponsors the Math Club.

Returning for his seventh year is Mr. Howard Jones. He obtained his B.S. degree in Math and Physical Education from Appalachian State University. At Northeast he teaches Math. He is also the sponsor to the Bus Club.

Mrs. Brenda Lail instructs classes in Geometry, Advanced Algebra and Trig., and Algebra II. She received her B.A. degree in Math from UNC-G.

Mr. Frank White graduated from Elon College with an A.B. degree in Math. He instructs classes in Algebra I, and Consumer Math.

Through Self-Experiment, Home Economics

Home Economics Students learn many valuable things which prepare them for the future. Cooking, sewing, and arranging flowers, along with child care, are taught.

For the first time in Northeast history, Food and Clothing classes are taught.

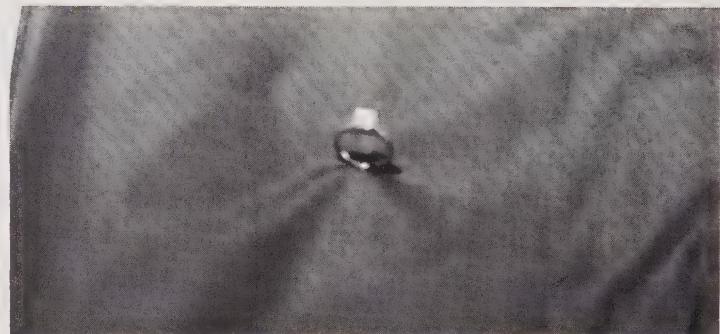

In Family Living, students discuss the problems they encounter. Each day problems are analyzed in different prospectives. Family Living has no definite pattern of study; it is a class in which students discuss problems in general.

These classes stress the importance of getting along with others in any field, and prove to be of value to anyone.

Every girl should take at least one of these courses before leaving Northeast. They can help in her future marriage and also in her career.

Mrs. Emily Clapp graduated from UNC-G with a B.S. degree in Home Economics. At Northeast she teaches General Home Economics.

Returning for a third year at Northeast is Mrs. Bobbie McCaskill. She graduated from UNC-G with a B.S.H.E. in Home Economics. She sponsors the F.H.A. Club.

Mrs. Pamela Bookout instructs classes in Clothing and Foods. She obtained her B.S.H.E. at UNC-G.

Upon graduation from High Point College Mrs. Sue Yoder received her A.B. degree in Social Studies. This year she teaches Family Living at Northeast.

Vocational Opportunity Means Experience for the Future

Mr. Morris Blair instructs classes in I.C.T. He graduated from Elon College with an A.B. degree in history. He also received his vocational certificate from UNC-Raleigh.

Mr. John Huffman graduated from Appalachian State University with a B.S. degree in Industrial Arts. He teaches Vocational Drafting here at Northeast.

Mr. Carl Farmer graduated from Florida State University, where he received his B.S. degree. He instructs classes in Distributive Education.

Returning to Northeast again is Mr. Prince Smith. He graduated from Agricultural and Technical State University with a M.S. degree. He teaches classes in Agriculture and Horticulture.

Mr. Odell Payne obtained a M.S. degree from UNC-Chapel Hill. He instructs Marketing I and D.E. II.

Back again this year is Mr. Gerringher. He teaches Bricklaying.

Starting his first year at Northeast is Mr. R. Combs. He graduated from Appalachian State University with a B.S.

Mr. Edward Adams instructs classes in Agriculture. He graduated from N.C. State University with a B.S. degree in Agricultural Education.

Drivers Learn Safety Is Important

Guidance Molds Student Ideals

Mr. Jerry Standahl received his M.A. degree in Education from East Carolina University. He is a Guidance Counsellor at Northeast.

Mr. Arthur Paschal obtained his M.S. degree from Oklahoma State University. He instructs classes in Driver Education.

Mr. Coy E. Temple obtained his M.A. degree at East Carolina. He is at Northeast for his first year in the Guidance Department.

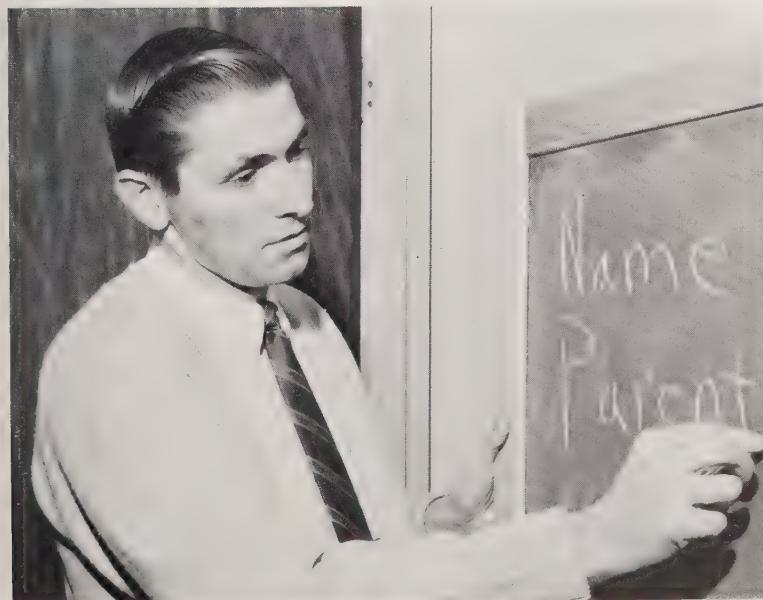

Mr. Robert Mills teaches Driver Education. He received his B.S. degree in Math from A&T State University.

Special Education Prepares Students for the Future

Mrs. Jane King instructs the classes of Special Education. She graduated from Appalachian State University with a B.S. degree in Home Economics.

Mr. William Snyder graduated from Appalachian State University with a B.S. degree. He teaches Special Education.

Physical Fitness Is Necessary In 1969

Mrs. Wanda Andrews received her B.S. degree in Education from Western Carolina University. She teaches Physical Education and sponsors intramurals.

As head of the Northeast Athletic Department, Coach Boles assumes much responsibility of athletic events.

As the wrestling coach, Mr. Bookout supervises wrestling techniques.

Coach Morgan and C. N. Clapp discuss the importance of speed.

a Top Notch coaching staff

Coach Andrews teaches Vicki Faucette the fine points of basketball.

As coach of the J. V. basketball team, Mr. Snyder displayed his determination to win.

Coach Rush used his knowledge of sports to coach the J. V. football and basketball squads.

Coach Combs takes a break to advise the wrestlers of the basic wrestling skills.

The coaches take a break from their normal routine.

Cheerleaders

This year's mighty, mighty Varsity Ram cheerleaders have worked extra hard. Out of the nine cheerleaders last year, only two returned. Therefore, this year's cheerleaders had their work cut out for them. Coordination, agility, and rhythm all have been accomplished in the short time they have been together.

Our school should be proud of the fine job our cheerleaders have done.

Bill Stanfield and Charlie Crum demonstrate an effective four point stance.

The year 1968 was one of heartbreak for our Rams. We got off to a bad start as we traveled to Bartlett-Yancey and were defeated 13 to 0. Our spirit was revived as we swept past Bassett, Va. With a score of 19 to 6. We walloped our rivals from "Skunk Holler", 25 to 0. The next seven games proved to be a great disappointment. Although our Rams were defeated, their spirit never fell. We always looked forward to the next game and never gave up. Their teamwork gave them much experience for next year. We came close to victory in the game with Western Alamance and Graham, losing by only a small margin. They closed the season with a 2-8 record. They should be congratulated for their good spirit and effort.

Ram stars are terrors of the Hoop

The Northeast Varsity Basketball team had seven veterans returning this year. These boys, combined with the newcomers on the squad, made up one of Northeast's finest teams. They went in to every game with the determination that is needed to have a successful season.

Coach Joe Guzinski, back for his second year, worked hard with his boys to get them in good condition for the stiff competition they faced this year.

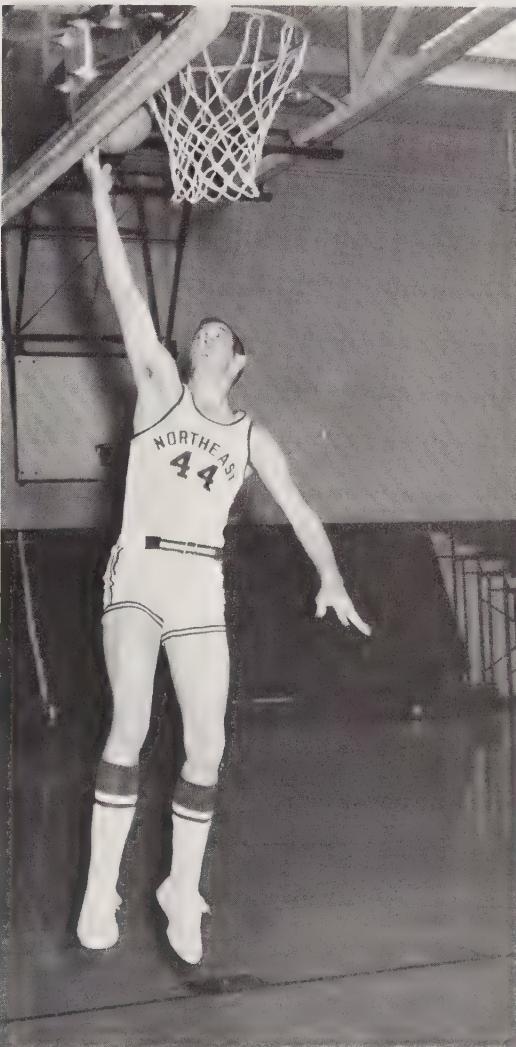

There were two awards given this year. One sponsored by Junior Civinettes for the boy that hustled the most during a game and the other by the Junior Civitan club for the boy with the most rebounds. We, at Northeast, should be proud to be a part of this team. Their spirit led them to do their best for their school.

Gerald Fryar goes in for a perfect lay-up.

Don Ledbetter executes the very difficult hook shot.

Skill, determination, team spirit are unbeatable combination

Oggie Waye shows fine form as he gets ready to pick off the runner at second.

Northeast nine sock it to challengers

This year the Rams baseball team is made up of a good mixture of Seniors, Juniors, and Sophomores. Under the guidance of Coach Boles, the team is working hard to get the things down-pat that will make them a winning team. They know that proficiency even in the fundamentals of baseball is important to a winning team, and are working to attain the standards of excellence which have characterized our mighty Rams in the past. Our baseball team has four games with our 4A rivals, two with Smith and two with Dudley. We know our Rams will give them a game they won't forget.

Coach Boles will have a lot to look forward to next year because the majority of the team will be returning. The Rams' hard work and determination will make them one of the best.

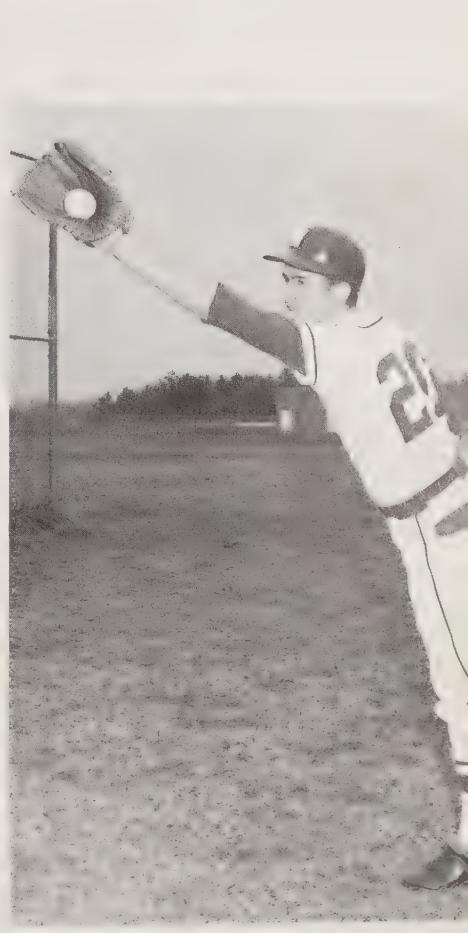

Jimmy Collins makes a long-g-g stretch to make the out more certain for the ump!

Steve Troxler leaps high to catch a hot fly and to keep the runner from advancing.

Ronnie Rudd shows his big kick as he prepares to throw his tricky curve.

Ralph Sears leans out to catch the ball that might otherwise have been a triple.

Northeast Mat Stars reveal themselves to be fierce opponents

This year our wrestling team did a tremendous job. They had the skill and determination to go far and they went far. Mr. Bookout and Mr. Combs did a fine job of coaching and getting the boys ready for the matches. The matches are divided into different categories according to weight. We had a variety of categories filled by our boys, but because of the vacant categories we failed to win a few games. This was one of the best seasons ever for the wrestling team. They went on to come in second place in the tournament with Bill Shively winning the Outstanding Wrestler's award. Two of the boys went on to compete in the State tournament. They are Bill Shively and Don Johnson.

Kenneth Bullins pins Benny Richardson in a practice match.

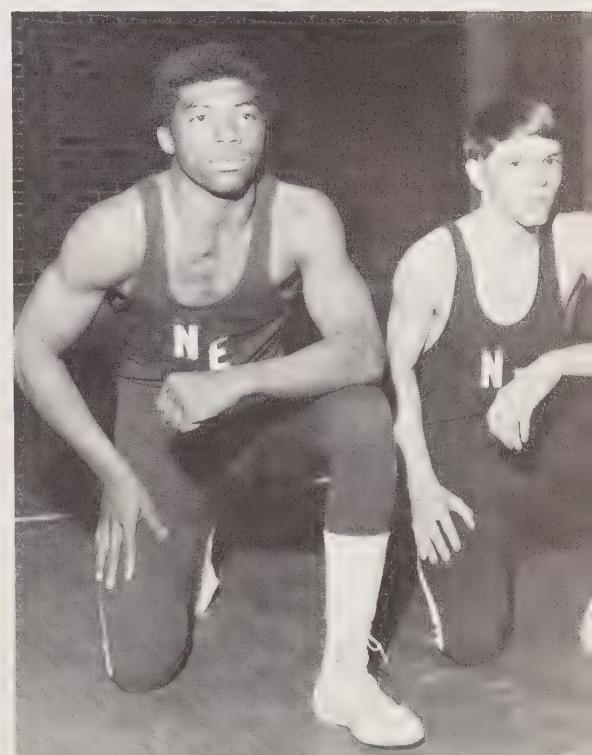

Charlie Crum and Willie Slade work out during wrestling practice.

Don Johnson and Harry Jefferies go through the moves that makes both these boys fine wrestlers.

Hard work and determination are two of the things that made it possible for Don Johnson and Bill Shivley to go to the state wrestling playoffs.

Butch Cagle and William Young square off during practice to see who gets to wrestle in an up coming match.

Northeast Cindermen prove themselves to be

Our track team has a new coach this year. His name is Coach "Pete" Morgan. It is his first year at Northeast and we hope not his last. He is planning to get his boys in shape early for the triangular-school-track meets this year. Although they have regular track meets, the triangular meets will be the toughest because Northeast will be competing against two schools at a time rather than the regular one school meet. Coach Morgan also hopes that by the time the regular season comes to an end, he will have several boys that will do very well in the City-County track meet. All the students here at Northeast will be pulling for Coach Morgan and his track-masters.

Masters of track and field

William Loftis practices pole vaulting in hope of setting a new county record this year.

Steve White demonstrates fine form in the follow through of the shotput.

Gary Gant shows excellent form and ability with the discus.

The J.V. Teams Do Their Thing

This year we were fortunate enough to have some fine sophomores going out for Junior Varsity sports. Their hard work and practice will make them good ball players in the future and it will give them experience they need for the varsity team next year.

The J. V.'s started out really well in football and basketball, but as their players were taken off the team and put on the varsity, they lacked the ability and determination that they had at first. Mr. Snyder did a really good job of getting the J. V.'s to pull together as a team and gain needed experience for the next year.

The J. V.'s had a new coach this year in baseball. Mr. Rush and the team were looking forward to a successful season this year, with hopes of moving some up to the varsity squad.

The J. V. Cheerleaders did a great job this year of provoking school spirit for the J. V. team. Under the leadership of Mrs. Sockwell and chief cheerleader, Denese Way, the cheerleaders led the support for the J. V.'s.

All in all, the J. V. teams did a fine job this year and should prove valuable to the varsity in years to come.

Kelly Bowman shows good ball handling as a J. V. guard.

Mike Williams has good form and should score many points during the season.

Roe Sockwell eyes the pitcher steadily before the pitch.

Girls Intramural Sports Provide Fast-Action and Excitement

Under the leadership of Mrs. Andrews, the young ladies of Northeast Senior High organized themselves into teams for an exciting intramural season. The busy schedule of the 1968-'69 intramural program included soccer, volleyball, basketball, and softball.

These girls worked hard to earn an "N" which they could wear proudly for their school. The girls spent their afternoons in this way for various reasons: to increase their sports skills; to "let off steam"; to keep in shape; to satisfy their spirit of competition; or just to have fun. Whatever the reason, this year's intramural program met each individual's needs.

Hard work, determination, close games, the losers' tears, and the victors' smiles are all characteristic of this year's intramural program.

Vicky Hayes puts forth a real effort when she kicks the ball.

Debbie Summers attempts to tip the ball away, as Betty McNeely reaches high for the ball.

Girls swing in intramural Softball

Intramural softball provides the girls at Northeast with something to do with their time during the spring. The girls spend many hours after school practicing and playing. There are always many good intramural softball teams at N. E. and this year won't be any exception. Mrs. Andrews does a fine job with the girls and has gained their respect and admiration. All the girls need is a little sunshine and they're ready to play.

Shirley Overbey gets another out at first.

Our Rams gather around Coach Boles for a moment of silence before taking the field.

Although all of the teams in the Northeast sports program did not win trophies this year, our Northeast Rams showed the teams that they played the spirit and good sportsmanship that Northeast is noted for. The yell of the cheerleader, the kick of the football, the swishing of the basket, the muscles against muscles, the cracking of the bat, the starting gun at the beginning of a race, the thrill of winning, and the agony of defeat symbolize all of the things that have happened this year in our sports program.

The spirit of the crowds and that of the players helped this year to be memorable to both the players and the spectators.

Powder Puff Game lifts spirits for Homecoming

A tremendous display of school spirit is shown each year at the powder puff football game. This year the Sensations destroyed the Knockouts' visions of victory by defeating them 6 – 0 in an action filled game. The fans were led during cheers by the mini-skirt mob of Northeast. The Rams dressed in gaudy sweaters, skirts, and wigs. The mock cheerleaders entertained the spectators with their antics. The game gave a lift to school spirit for the Homecoming game.

The Sensations' cheerleaders put on a burlesque routine to the delight of the spectators.

A crushing (?) blow sends an adversary to the ground.

Ready! Set! Hut Hut! and the play is set in motion.

Ram tackle, Finnell Watson, prepares to crush Eagle ball carrier to the ground.

Spirited by the powder puff game earlier that day, the students prepared to celebrate Homecoming. The chilly night of October 4 was a perfect setting for the Homecoming football game. Although at half time the Eagles held a 26 – 0 lead, hope soared as the valiant Rams made their first touchdown, but faded as the Eagles claimed a 46 – 7 victory. The half time program was started by the swinging music of the Northeast band as the lovely majorettes and highsteppers demonstrated their talents. The highlight of the festivities was the crowning of the lovely Miss Donna Rumley as our Homecoming Queen. The Queen and her attendants paraded the field in four convertibles, charming the spectators with their beauty and grace. After the game everyone celebrated Homecoming by attending a dance in the gym.

The Lion, The Witch, and the Wardrobe

The advice and guidance of Miss Connelly helped make the play a success.

A magic door leads to The Land of Narnia and adventure.

This year, the new Advanced Speech and Dramatics classes undertook something new. They presented a play entitled, "The Lion, The Witch, and the Wardrobe" at the elementary schools which surround Northeast. The play is a children's play and was enjoyed tremendously by the students. Much hard work, effort, and talent were put into the play by the drama students.

Vicki Worrell finds that studying her script adds much to her performance.

Teresa Carter, as the beaver, holds the children in suspense as she tells about the white witch.

Junior-Senior spells Excitement for all

Anticipation dominates the thoughts of upper classmen as the night of the Junior-Senior Prom grows near. While the seniors make plans for the exciting event, the juniors busily prepare the invitations, programs, decorations, and endless other details for the prom.

April 5, 1968 was a truly memorable night. Boys attired in white evening jackets, girls in beautiful evening dresses, and the "sparkle" in everyone's eyes all blended to make it a "special" night for everyone there.

Entering through a garden trellis, the guests were immediately charmed by the beautiful garden settings. The fountain in the center of the dance floor dominated the setting, and the music of "The Charms" added to the enchantment of "Three Coins in a Fountain."

Anticipation grips Junior Marshals

The distinction of being chosen as a Junior Marshal is a much sought after honor. The nine Juniors who have proven by their scholastic achievements that they are worthy of special recognition are chosen as Junior Marshals. These students must have shown themselves to be exceptional in their quest for knowledge. Junior Marshals represent the Junior Class at the graduation exercise of the Seniors. They exhibit a dignified demeanor at all times during the commencement exercise. The Marshals have the responsibility of leading the procession of Seniors and of seating the guests of the graduation class. The Chief Marshal has the added responsibility of reading aloud clearly and correctly the names of the graduates.

Because of scholastic distinction, the Junior Marshals for 1968 - 1969 are: Pat Swann, Chief; Margaret O'Brien; Mike Simpson; Don Ledbetter; Diane Brooks; Steve Troxler; Sharon Gerringen; Debra Carty; C. H. Fraizer.

FUNCTIONS

1968–1969 Student

This year females dominate the Student Council. As the first female President of the Student Council, Teresa Coleman begins the day with announcements. She plays a big role in school functions during her term. Teresa also begins assembly programs.

The Northeast Student Council is a body of well-qualified students who represent the student body in school government. They are picked by their fellow classmates to carry out assignments. Their tasks include such things as the Homecoming presentation, school beautification projects, and the election of Student Council officers for the upcoming year.

Members of the Student Council work with the student body to develop good habits which will strengthen the school. They promote democracy so that each member of the student body will have a chance to better Northeast.

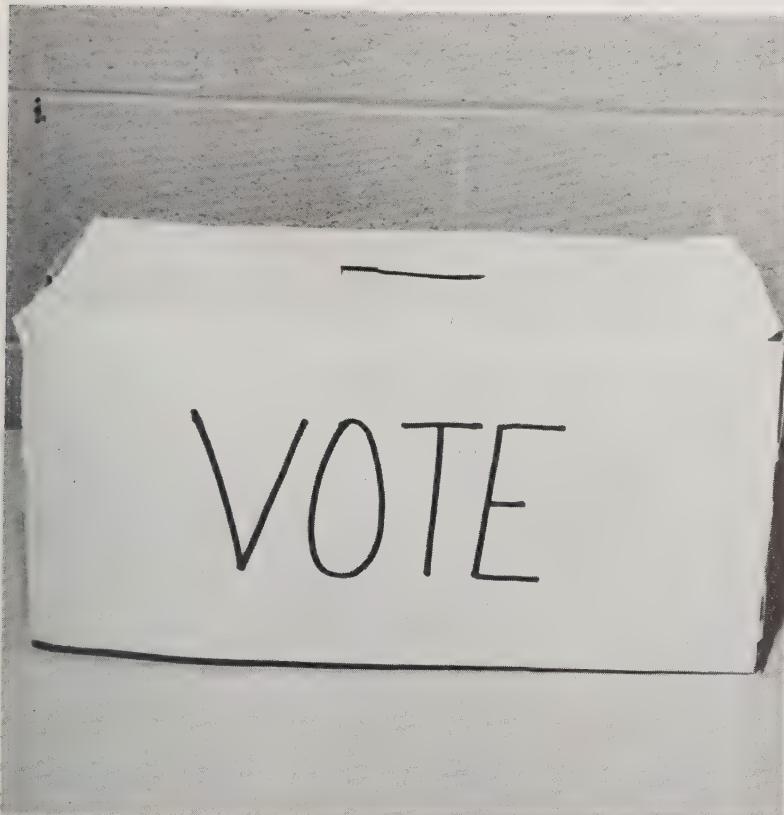

The Student Council has many responsibilities to carry out. With each member doing his part, each task is completed.

Student Council Representatives are Left to right; first row: Douglas Shelton, Lynwood Tucker, Dale Kennedy, Keith Scott; second row: Debbie Gibson, Sheila Morrow, Karen Baker, Nancy Maness, Cynthia Shoffner, Debbie Foust, Gwyn Bartlett, Beverly Lambert, Cheryl Mabe, Jeannie Williams, Dara Murphy, Willie Settle; third row: Kathy Warren, Bonnie Adams, Treva Iceenhower, Sandy Norris, Gail Smith, Teresa Overman, Jackilynn Hairston, Sue Andrews, Kathy Jarvis, Terri Thompson, Jane Troxler, Debra Moore, Denise McKinney, Judy Fruh; fourth row: Sherry

Council

As one of its responsibilities the Student Council conducts and controls the votes during Student Council elections. The student body votes for the person of their choice by secret ballot. The nominee with the majority of votes wins. The ballot box awaits the finish of the speeches and the marking of ballots.

The 1968 Student Council officers and sponsor are bottom to top: Advisor-Miss Linda Connelly; President-Teresa Coleman; Vice President-Cathy Smith; Corresponding Secretary-Mary Lankford; Recording Secretary-Carol Phibbs; Treasurer-Jimmy Huffiness.

In keeping with our country's tradition, the flag is hoisted and flown proudly. Northeast takes pride in being a part of this great country and sharing its traditions and heritage.

Northeast's E.D. Idol Chapter of

The National Honor Society . . . a club that most students only dream of . . . the hope of a lifetime. Members must be "tops" in their class in grades, outside activities, leadership ability, and character.

Students must work harder in their Sophomore year to prove themselves worthy of achieving the honor of becoming a member of the National Honor Society.

The Induction Ceremony of the National Honor Society is a very solemn, quiet, and anxious time for the student body. It is a great surprise and thrill for those tapped by the old members as inductees into the National Honor Society.

the National Honor Society

As one of its many responsibilities, the National Honor Society undertakes the operation of the school store during homeroom period and break every morning. During basketball season, the members serve snacks during the home games.

The National Honor Society stands for scholarship, service, leadership, and character. Each member must uphold these traits and transmit them to people with whom he comes in contact. Upon acceptance, the members receive a pin which represents their club. This pin takes the shape of a flaming torch set on a keystone and is the symbol of the National Honor Society.

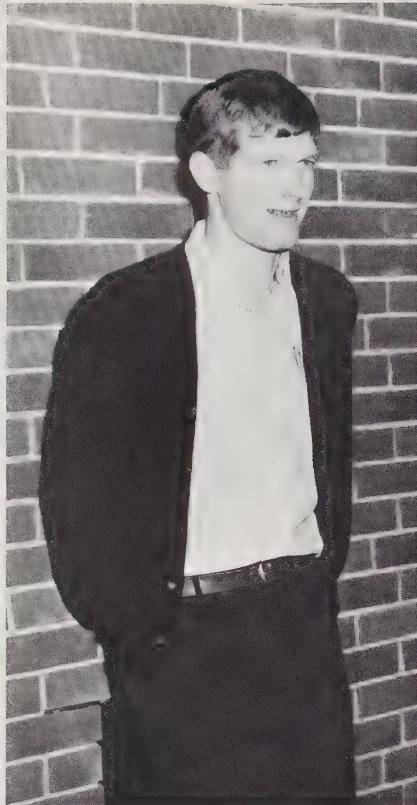

Mrs. Hegner accepts and challenges inductees to better themselves in school and in their community. Fall Senior Inductees were: Janet Barrow, James Alcon, and Curtis Hooker.

Aries Staff: 1969

The school year of 1968-1969 has been an exceedingly interesting one. The Aries Annual Staff certainly realizes this as they have taken advantage of the various "happenings" of their senior year. Since the yearbook is a senior project the Aries Staff has tried to express to the student body what the last four years have meant to them.

The Aries is a memory book with a key. Using the key, the sophomores, juniors, and seniors can see how they have grown, mentally and emotionally through the past year.

The Seniors have walked these "hallowed halls" for four long years and they have gained knowledge that they hope to never lose. These Seniors sincerely wish to pass any wisdom that they can to the sophomores and juniors of Northeast High. It is with sincere appreciation of these four years that the members of the Aries Annual Staff have tried, through this yearbook, to express to the student body of Northeast Senior High how we all have matured a little more.

As Sports Editor, Johnny Overman uses his athletic experiences to give a clearer view of sports at Northeast.

Hope Harrell is an eager Business Manager when the time comes to sell ads for the 1968-1969 Aries.

Pat Roof and Clifford Brame have the tremendous task of uniting the organizations in the Northeast Aries.

As Literary Editor, Debbie Lockamy realizes that her trusty Thesaurus will help her whenever she wants to add spice to the Aries Annual.

Debbie Gibson discovers that drawing advertisements isn't the only responsibility of the Art Editor.

The Annual Staff surprised Mr. Cullers with a birthday party.

Our advisor, Mr. Cullers and our Editor, Bill Stanfield, realize that working together helps the Aries to be the best.

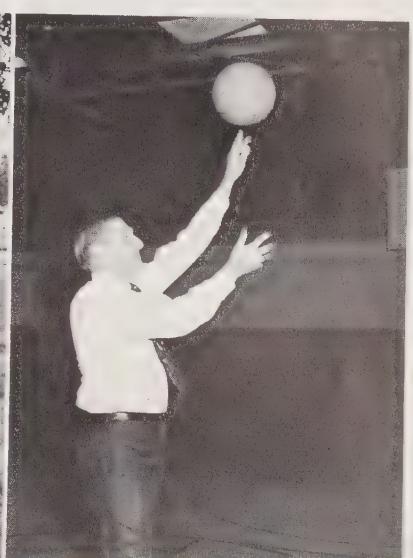

Charles Myers as Feature Editor encounters various strange activities during the school year.

Beverly Albert, Kay Jarvis, Terry Ross, and Mary Lankford as Class Editors learn to appreciate the individualism of the different classes.

Learning to know the teachers better is an added attraction to Jeannie Williams' job as Administration Editor.

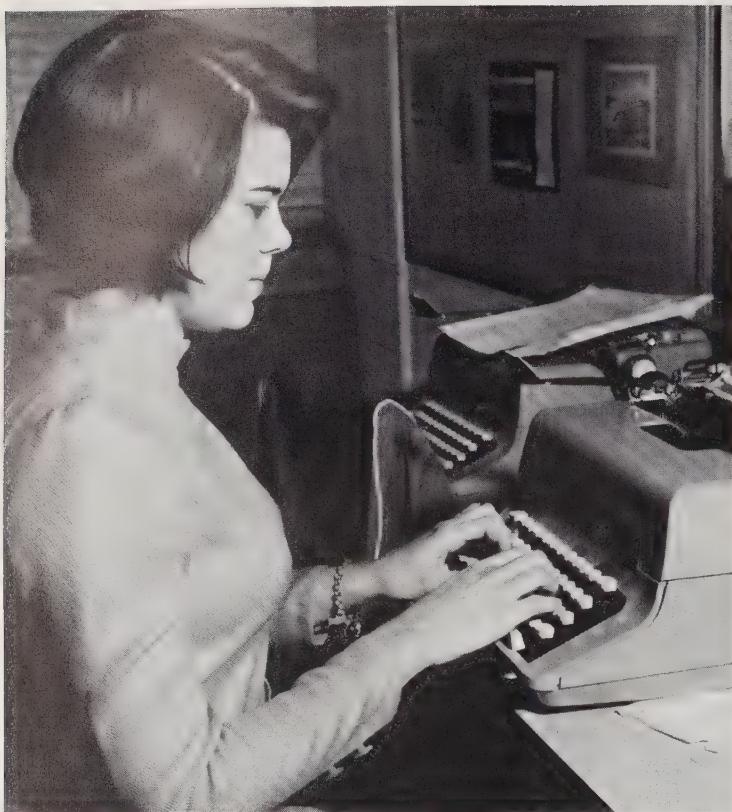

Mr. Boswell shoots a little basketball to relax after a strenuous day of shooting pictures.

Our busy typist Betty Crowder, Penny Bigham, Joan Oliver, and Donna Rumley know what it is like to type their hearts out.

Last year the new members of the Aries Annual Staff "eagerly" treated the old members to a pizza dinner at Tony's Pizza.

Pat Stanley begins to type the next edition of Rampages.

Teresa Carter, literary editor, proofreads the articles of Deloris Florence and Linda Caudle, feature editors.

Julian Powell, news editor, collaborates with Kirk Perkins, sports editor.

Ginger Vernon and Jimmy Crowder use business tactics to sell Rampages.

1968-69 Rampages Keeps Students Informed

Students anxiously await the issuance of the latest edition of the Rampages. How can you blame them when the Rampages Staff members worked hard to publish the best in feature articles, news of school activities, and bits of juicy gossip? Advice is given to the forlorn through "Dear Mama Ram," the brain is exercised by the publication of a crossword puzzle, and students find out who's getting older through the publication of birthdays.

Rampages provides a storehouse of rich experiences as the future housewife, school teacher, businessman, and manual laborer look back on his former high school days.

Although the staff members are faced with many obstacles and long hours of work they keep their determination, because in the end they know that they will be richly rewarded by the appreciation expressed by the students.

Marilyn Moore, Shirley Garland, Janice Headen, and Mike Johnson are pictured with two of the regular features of Rampages, "Song Dedications" and "Dear Soul Sister."

Carol Phibbs, editor, starts a new day of work with Mrs. Synder and Mrs. McGimsey, newspaper advisors.

Willie Settle and Lois Patrick, club editors, look over last year's club news.

Leadership training and Service: Junior Civitan Objectives

Junior Civitans prove to be outstanding members of the community and future leaders. This club is a division of the nation-wide Civitan clubs. Civitans serve in communities where the most benefits are received. Projects include pastimes such as turkey shoots to raise money for needy families and drives to raise money for the Tuberculosis Association. Civitans devote their time and effort to each project.

When ready for new members, the old members seek a selected few through much consideration. If these few meet their qualifications, they are asked to join.

Northeast Civitans operate the concession stand and the concession bus during football games. This service is greatly appreciated by the spectators. Between the end of football season and Christmas, the Civitans sponsor a turkey shoot as a money raising project.

As a tribute to Northeast, the Junior Civitans obtained Ulysses, the Ram mascot. He is well cared for so that he will be presentable to the student body.

The Civitans hold dinner meetings along with business meetings. Business is discussed and plans are made as the necessity arises. As dinner guest Mr. Snyder enjoys his meal, he also listens to the Civitan procedures.

The 1968-1969 sponsor and officers of the Junior Civitans are left to right, first row: Secretary-Steve Reece, President-Rod Troxler, Treasurer-Mark Bush; second row: Sergeant at Arms-Dale Combs, Vice President-Mike Simpson, Chaplain-Billy Ashworth, Advisor-Mr. Joe Guzinski.

Perry Lowdermilk, Ronnie Rudd, and Don Turner, Junior Civilian members, pack the car they will travel in to the regional Junior Civilian Convention.

A Nobler Citizenship Heads Junior

It is the ambition of many girls to be chosen as a member of the Junior Civinettes, one of the most worthy organizations at Northeast. Members must possess outstanding characters, be willing to sacrifice their time and energy for the benefit of themselves and others, and set a serviceable example before others. Civinettes prove to be good citizens by following their creed, "Whatsoever ye would that men do to you, do ye even so to them."

Serviceable projects included distributing toys to hospitalized children and donating food to needy families. Many other services were rendered by the club throughout the year. To raise money for the support of their projects, the Civinettes sponsored a fruit cake and candy sale.

Civnette "Happenings" are recorded in the annual scrapbook. The girls, after hard and tedious work, hope to receive a trophy for a first-rate scrapbook which is graded at the Convention in Durham.

Officers who seem to be having an enjoyable and different experience are: Hope Harrell, President; Margaret O'Brien, Secretary-Treasurer; Mrs. Bookout, club advisor; Billie Jo Brown, Sergeant-at-arms; Jeannie Williams, Vice President; Sharon Gerring, Chaplain.

Having a time of chit-chat are members, first row: Debbie Foust, Patti Apple, Jane Troxler, Susan Josey, Cyndee LaMarr, Vicky Watkins, Mary Lankford, Bonnie Adams, Debbie Lockamy, Teresa Lewey, Beverly

Civinette Aims

Gwyn Bartlett uses her hands to make puzzles for the children of Wesley Long Hospital.

Jeannie Williams makes final preparations for the initiation ceremony.

Hope Harrell gives tickets to Sharon Gerring, Billie Jo Brown, Patti Apple, and Susan Josey as they ride in style to the Duke-Wake Forest football game.

“Parlez-vous Francais?”

Mrs. Woellner, club advisor, and Joan Oliver, President, show that experimenting in the French lab can be fun.

Browsing through French novels are, officers: Pat Roof, Secretary; Patti Caudle, Vice-President; Karla Key, Treasurer; Willie Settle, Club Reporter.

“Mais oui.”

How would you like to take a trip to France? The only requirement is a background of the French language with a “B” average in French I or a “C” average in French II. Then join Les Juenes Amis de la France along with other interested students. You are now on your way to France through films, skits, a French Christmas carol singing, a dinner in a French restaurant, and many other interesting programs correlated to a better understanding of the French language and the French way of life.

The new members' applications were screened in November, and they quickly got into the swing of things with the annual initiation party. A person viewing the proceedings would see girls wearing short skirts, dark hose and berets accompanied by mustachioed boys. Under the leadership of Mrs. Woellner the club has accomplished much for the French students. Les Jeunes Amis de la France is truly a worthwhile organization.

A typical street scene in Paris is a dream for French students as they speculate a someday visit to France.

Bill Lanning, Susan Myrick, and Randy Kindley enjoy singing French “chansons” at the initiation party.

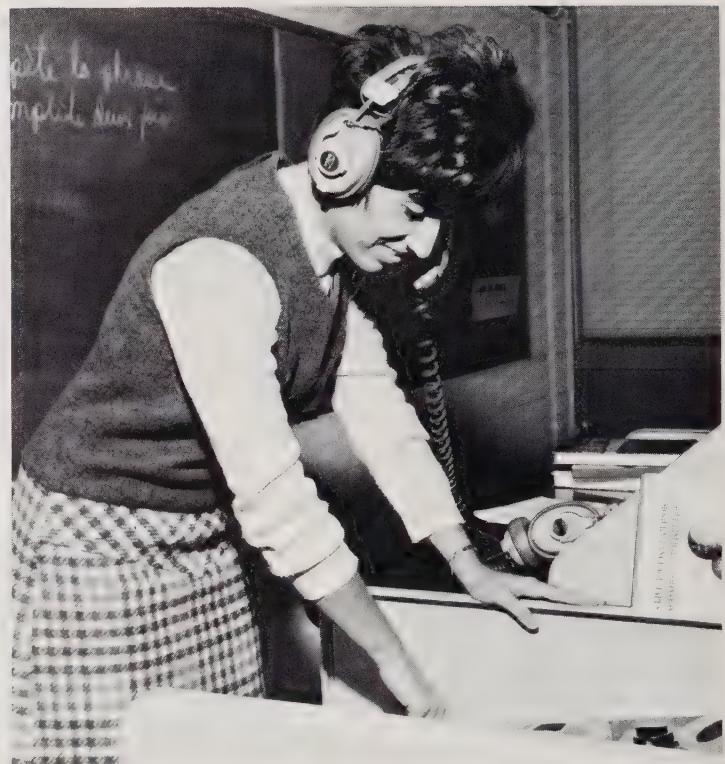

Bonnie Adams “takes a breather” on the bench presented by the French Club in memory of Belinda Hefner, former French Club President.

El Club de Espanol

Mariachis strolling through the streets only pausing to serenade young girls with Spanish music is a Mexican romantic scene. Colorful clothing, large festivals, dancing, and singing are characteristics of the Spanish speaking people. The Spanish Club members view Spanish customs and traditions in case they ever have the desire to visit a Spanish speaking country.

The Spanish Club arouses interest in Spanish customs through guests, speakers, films, and filmstrips.

As sponsor and advisor of the Spanish Club, Mrs. Kaiser sets up tapes to correspond with the daily Spanish lessons.

In keeping with Spanish tradition, the Spanish Club celebrates Christmas with a piñata, a figure made of papier-mâché and filled with candy.

Everyone scrambles for the treats after the piñata has been broken. The rush results in collision, but the confusion is all in fun.

Math Club Members Venture

Miss Flenniken, club advisor, expresses enthusiasm in her work.

Many fields of advancement and opportunity are facing young people today and one of the most comprehensive and changing fields is mathematics. Math Club members are united with a common interest in the mathematical fundamentals so necessary for the space age generation. Programs for the year included a stimulation of the brain in solving mathematical puzzles and guest speakers concerned with ideas on data processing and preparing for college math. Early in the year Math Club members worked hard in selling candy bars to raise money for a cause which they felt was very worthwhile. This was the sponsorship of a college scholarship to an outstanding senior boy or girl who planned to continue his education in a related math occupation. They also honored the senior boy or girl who had maintained the highest average in the courses of Algebra I and II, Geometry, and Advanced Algebra and Trigonometry. The Math Club this year truly achieved their goal in stimulating an interest in mathematics.

Officers chosen for their leadership are: Billie Jo Brown, Treasurer; Cathy Smith, President-elect; Janet Barrow, Corresponding Secretary; Eugene Lamb, Vice President; Margaret O'Brien, Recording Secretary; Pat Roof, President.

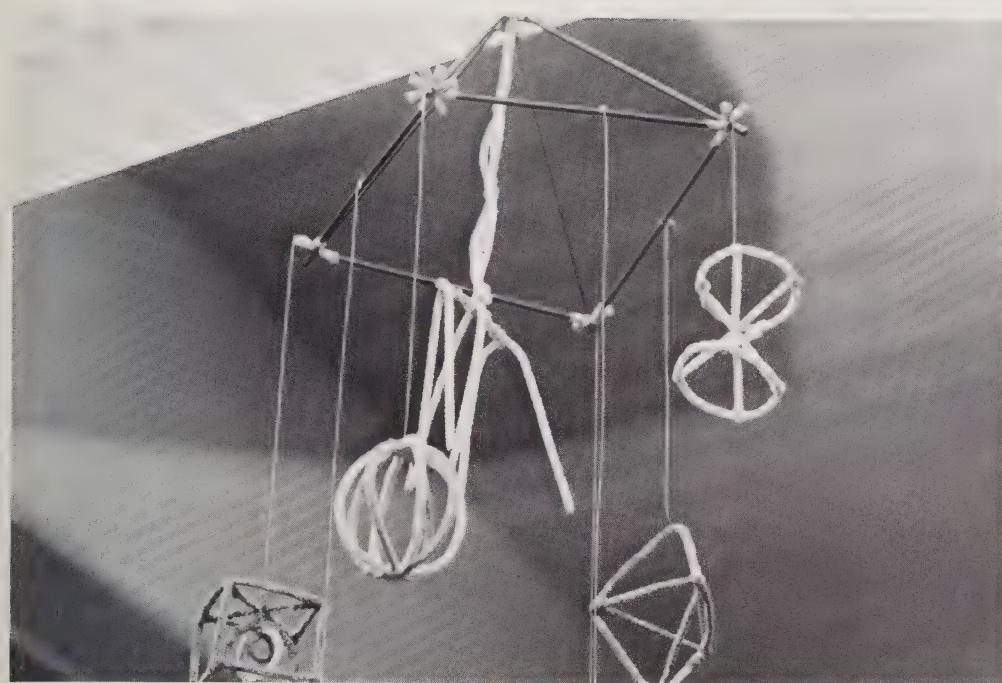

Pam Keaton holds her breath as Keith Scott commences to shave the balloon which is one of the many tasks performed at the initiation.

Terry Ross and Wayne Ross survey the patio for ideas on a beautification project.

Into New and Diverse Problems

Spheres, triangles, and planes are just a few of the mysteries which Math Club members explore.

The Math Club spells "fun" as members enjoy themselves at a weiner roast.

Members, first row: Gloria Reese, Cindy Shoffner, Debbie Foust, Karla Key, Rita Burke, Denise Way, Pam Keaton; second row: Carol Phibbs, Beverly Albert, Joan Oliver, Kathy Holmes, Treva Icenhower, Teresa Coleman, Trudy

Clark; third row: Keith Scott, Faye Snead, Sandra Apple, Deborah Ring, Ronnie Whitt, Al Harris; fourth row: Danny Faucette, C. N. Clapp, Kenneth Bullins.

Capable members elected to hold offices were: Patti Caudle, Reporter; Donna Pardue, Vice President; Patricia Scott, Secretary; Sheila Morrow, Treasurer; and Debbie Gibson, President.

Experimentation is

Through science courses offered at school, students acquire a better understanding of the how and why of the vast universe about them, but only through involvement in extracurricular activities do they obtain that extra insight so needed in the rapidly transforming world about them. Active participation in the Science Club gives that extra insight. Members, who are required to have a "B" average in the last science taken, are

New members initiated into the club's activities are, first row: Mike Craven, Delano Faucette, Calvin Coble, Buddy Smith, Curtis Hooker, Danny Faucette; second row: William Young, Keith Scott, Karen Westbrook, Shirley Overbey,

Knowledge to Science Club Members

given the opportunity to explore further this changing world and to investigate the numerous possibilities of careers which have a dependence on scientific knowledge. Discussions on the latest news in the realm of science, experiments, visiting speakers, and plans for social activities headed the programs this year. One of the highlights of the year was plans to visit the science department of a local college campus.

Delano Faucette and Keith McDuffie conduct an experiment which plays an important role in the understanding of Chemistry.

Shirley Overbey, a sophomore, peers at life through a stereoscopic dissecting microscope.

Preparations for a demonstration of the dissection of a shark are being made by Mr. Walker, club advisor.

Student Librarians

Officers, first row: Beverly Albert, President; Debbie Joines, Vice President; Betty Crowder, Treasurer; Linda Caudle, Secretary; second row: Mrs. Graham, Club Advisor; Faye Snead, Reporter; are involved in the tasks of library services.

The Library Club of Northeast Senior High increases every year as more students become interested in library services, reading, and books.

An active schedule was maintained as six club members attended the North Carolina Library Association district rally at Rockingham Community College for an enjoyable experience.

The paperback book sale held in December was a success in two ways. First, it supplied needed funds for club projects. Second, it stimulated an interest in reading among the students as they flocked to the library to look over the many, varied books on display. Having chosen books ranging from Charlie Brown to Ben Hur, students left the library with an armful of books.

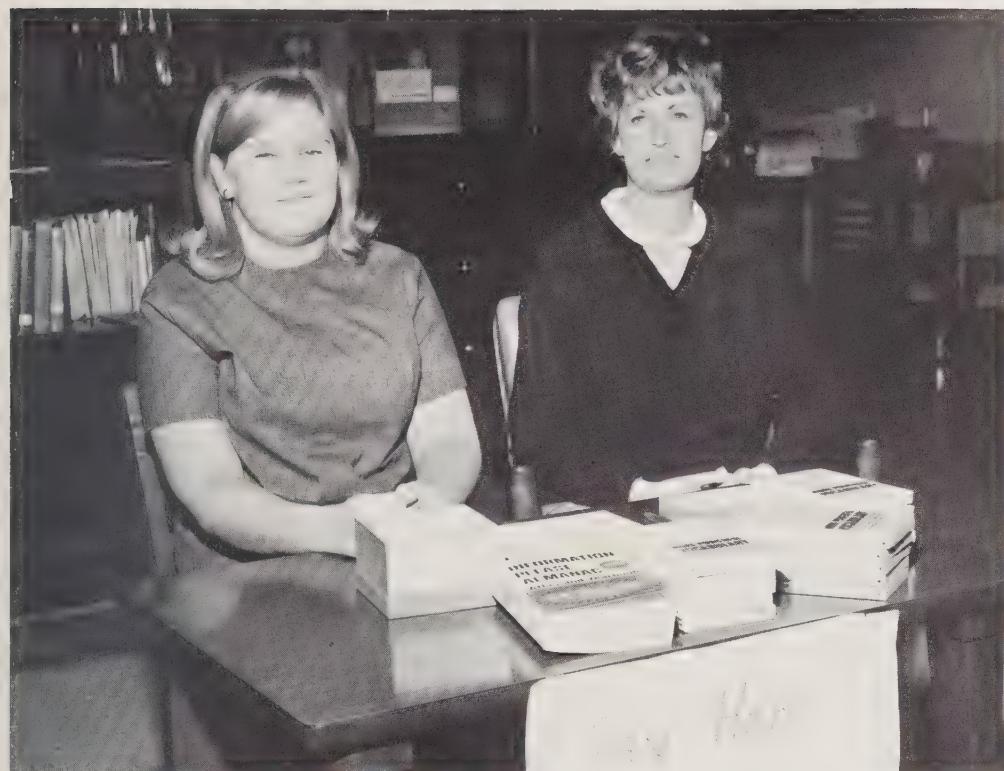

Students are grateful for the wonderful work the Library Club has done in their helpful services and in brightening up the library with their seasonal decorations.

Old members: Pat Smith, Brenda Ore, Jane Lambert, Linda Long, Mary Barnes, Ken Bullins, Bill Shively, Sara Shore, Barbara Chandler, Deborah

Cheek, Kathy Boone, Pam Keaton, Brenda Ross realize that reading is fun and informative.

Become Enveloped in the World of Books

With smiling faces, Debra Yarborough and Linda Long greet prospective customers at the paperback book sale.

Faye Snead, a library club member, instructs Jerry Smith, a sophomore, in the correct use of the card catalogue.

New members skimming through magazines are, sitting: Cindy Clark, Beverly Lambert, Sandra Cole, Joyce Brown, Pat Shaw, Diane Smith, Dwight Biggs, Treva Icenhower, Sadie Scales, Rose Butler, Sheila Johnson, Diane Cartledge, Reuben Busick, Mike Ellis, Kirk Perkins, Gloria Reese, Julian Powell; standing: Gloria Woods, Debra Yarborough, Judy Little, Carol Johnson, Kathy Holmes, Alan Shupe, Alice Goforth, Lynette Gant, Cathy Stewart, Joan Oliver, Lynn May, Mike Brandon.

Students Drill Themselves in the Skills of Public

Debates, speeches, and dramatic interpretations constitute the work of the National Forensic League. The N.F.L. endeavors to produce effective speakers—speakers who have a purpose in mind and are successful in achieving that purpose whether it is to inform, persuade, or entertain. These effective speakers will be the leaders of the world tomorrow.

Members are instructed in organized planning, poise, clarity, expression, vocabulary use, and the proper way to present both opinions and facts. Members also discover the value of learning from others as they participate in speaking and debating contests with leagues from other schools. We are proud of our leaguers in their fine showing at these contests.

Only in their later life do N.F.L. members completely realize the value of their experience.

Ammons, Lonnie Jeffries, Wayne Ross, Terry Dalrymple, John Cheek, Judy Whittfield, Diane Britt, Shirley Fruh, Terry Ross.

Speaking

Teresa Carter does not forget that poise and expression are necessary in making contact with the audience.

Surprise is expressed by Vicki Worrell as she presents a dramatic interpretation.

Miss Connelly stresses to Phyllis Lambeth the importance of good planning and extensive reference work as prerequisites for an effective speech or debate.

Future Teachers Obtain Practice

As you view the many members of the Future Teachers of America, you may be taking a preview look at the teachers of your children in future years. In the ears of these dedicated students echo the words, "Wisdom is the principal thing; therefore get wisdom: and with all thy getting get understanding." They have found that "wisdom" includes much more than "head-knowledge," although its importance is beyond realization. It means an understanding of the world in which they live and the four spheres of man: spiritual, mental, physical, and social.

Selling cookbooks was a successful project this year as the club members worked together to raise money for a school beautification project.

A day of practice teaching at elementary and junior high schools is a big challenge for F.T.A. members. This is the beginning of the realization that "wisdom" includes an understanding of each individual, from the kindergarten child to the college student doing post-graduate work.

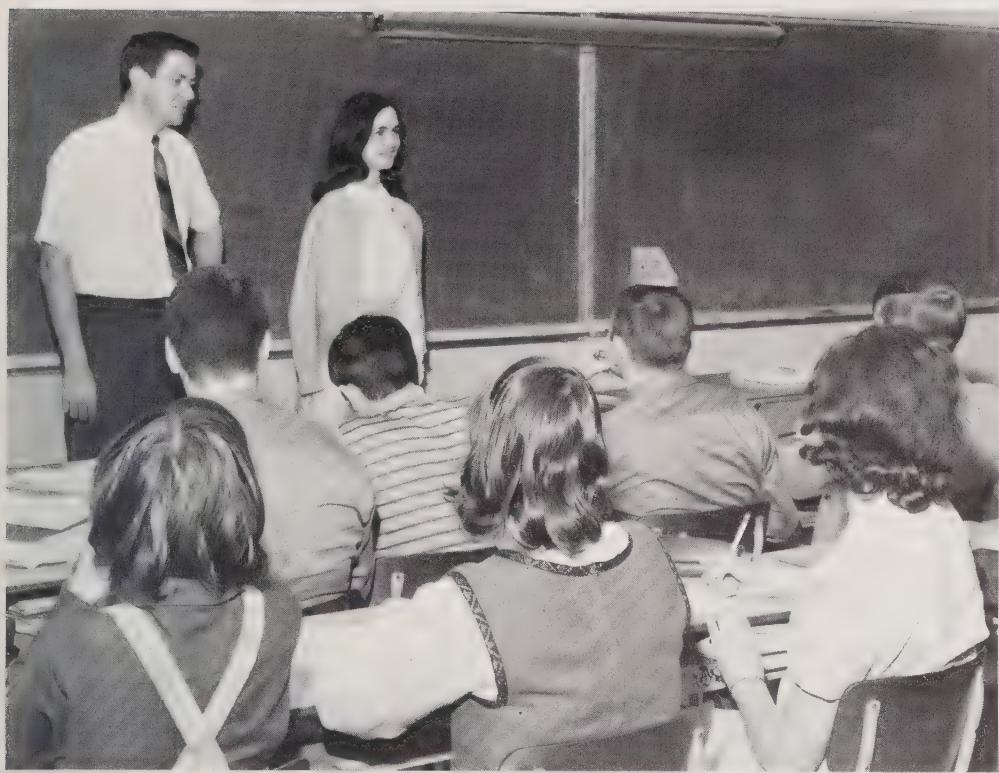

Officers: Rose Butler, President; Carol Mabe, Reporter; Janice Scott, Treasurer; Beverly Albert, Parliamentarian; Joan Oliver, Vice President; use guidance office facilities to prepare themselves for college and teaching.

McNeely, Francis Flinchum, Treva Icenhower, Joyce Brown, Diane Cartledge, Susan Myrick, Teresa Lewey, Barbara Brown, Carol Mabe, Karla Key, Cathy Smith.

In Their Chosen Profession

Teresa Coleman experiences a new "thing" as she does practice teaching of a ninth grade Algebra I class.

Diane Cartledge speculates upon a career as a guidance counselor.

Billie Jo Brown, Secretary, and Mrs. Synder, club advisor, examine the cookbooks which the club sold for a money-raising project.

Students Step Out Into

The Future Business Leaders of America strives to prepare students for future business vocations.

Guests from various organizations are invited to donate background information on their experiences in the business world.

The main project of the club is the organization of our Student Directory. It also proves to be a valuable asset to the Southern Bell Telephone Company by distributing telephone directories to the homes in various areas.

Committees within the F.B.L.A. Club work diligently to produce an annual scrapbook for the club members to examine in future years. Members also look forward to convention time in Durham where they can exhibit their club project.

Competent officers are: Kathy Michael and Sue Andrews, Reporters; Kay Jarvis, Vice President; Donna Rumley, President; Trudy Clark, Historian; Barbara Perdue, Secretary; Shirley Fruh, Treasurer.

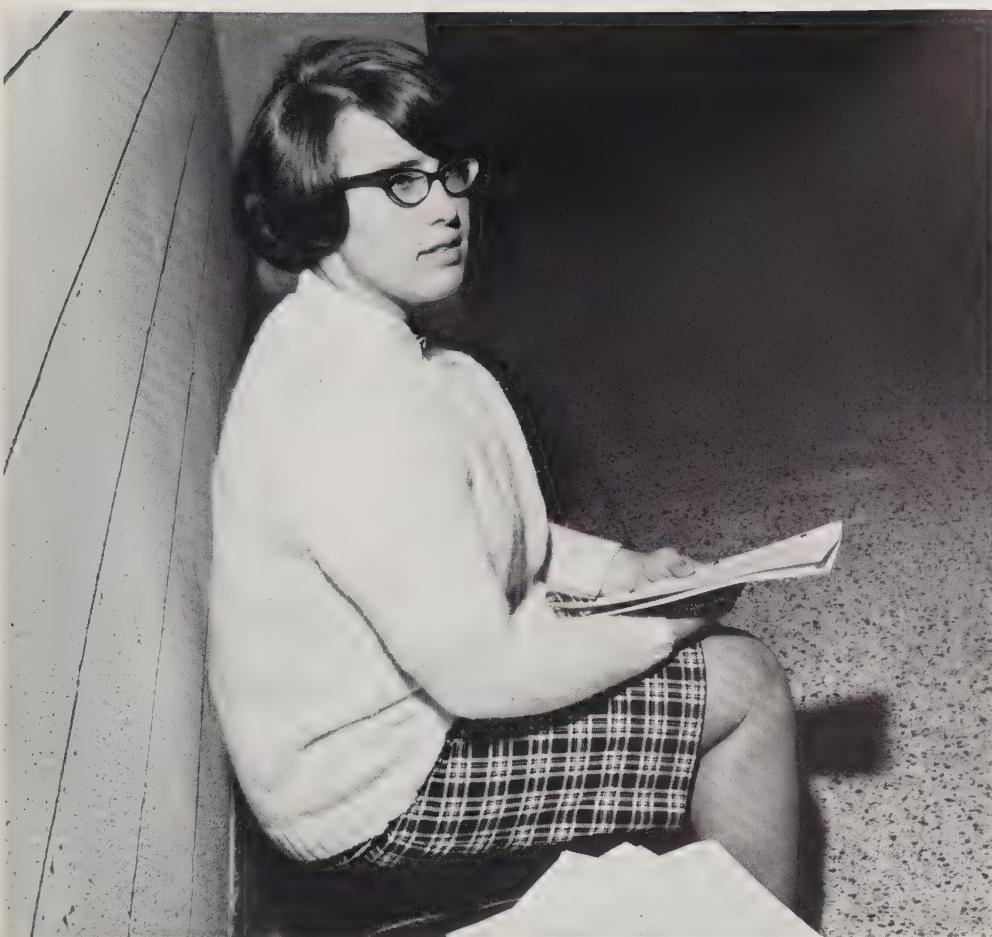

Mrs. Barham, club advisor, shows her enjoyment in office work.

The Business World

The Student Directory, a publication of the F.B.L.A., brings back pleasant memories to Teresa Carter as she recalls those long hours spent on the telephone.

Debby Carty and Cindy Zimmerman are ready to aid Southern Bell Telephone Company by delivering telephone directories.

Trudy Clark realizes that secretarial work includes many chores.

Future

Deserving leaders are: Billie Puckett, Recreation Leader; Jeannie Williams, Secretary; Donna Norris, President; Carol Overbey, Reporter; Valerie Andrews, Treasurer; Kathy Jarvis, Vice President; Debbie Lashley, Historian.

Becoming a member of the Future Homemakers of America means striving for higher ideals in human relationships, standards for citizenship, and preparations for a young lady's future domestic life as a mother and a homemaker. It means creating, expressing, and giving. These Future Homemakers seem to possess the necessary qualities to give a part of themselves to others.

This year's program included work on six projects concerned with such topics as citizenship, future careers, money matters, bridging the generation gap, beautifying the community, morals and manners. Other rewarding experiences were a Masquerade Dance, Daddy-Date Night, and the Mother-Daughter Banquet.

December 6, 1968 is a day which Northeast Senior High Students will not forget. Hearts swelled with pride and many eyes became tear-laden as students listened to "This Is My Country" being sung by Vickie Faucette and viewed the representation of the Statue of Liberty, an inspiring program on citizenship presented by our F.H.A.

New members who view sewing as a means of creating are: Faye Vickers, Debra Lowdermilk, Brenda Wyrick, Carol Shelton, Lou Ann Wall, Debbie Childress, Betty Burnell, Nancy Williams, Sheila Morrow, Joyce Brown, Lois Patrick, Marilyn Moore, Andrea Womack.

Clapp, Diane Biggs, Barbara Brown, Terri Way, Deana Powell, Gail Cole, Judy Huffines, Mary Williams, Penny Bigham, Marsha Tucker, Diane Brooks.

Homemakers Strive "Toward New Horizons"

The FHA emblem is displayed in the background as Mrs. McCaskill, club advisor, glances through the club's annual scrapbook.

Costumes of the winners at the Masquerade Dance sponsored by FHA show the spirit and festivities of an enjoyable evening.

Donna Norris was bestowed the honor of attending the National FHA Convention in Miami, Florida held this past summer.

FFA: Future Hope for Agriculture

The Future Farmers of America Club consists of agriculture students who come from farms within this district and interested students taking Horticulture, a new course this year. New techniques are learned through books and practical work. Methods for repairing farm equipment are taught so that the owner can repair his machinery without having to "foot a bill."

The F.F.A. attended the annual State Fair at Raleigh this year. Having observed the agricultural exhibits, the students discovered how to put what they had seen into practical use.

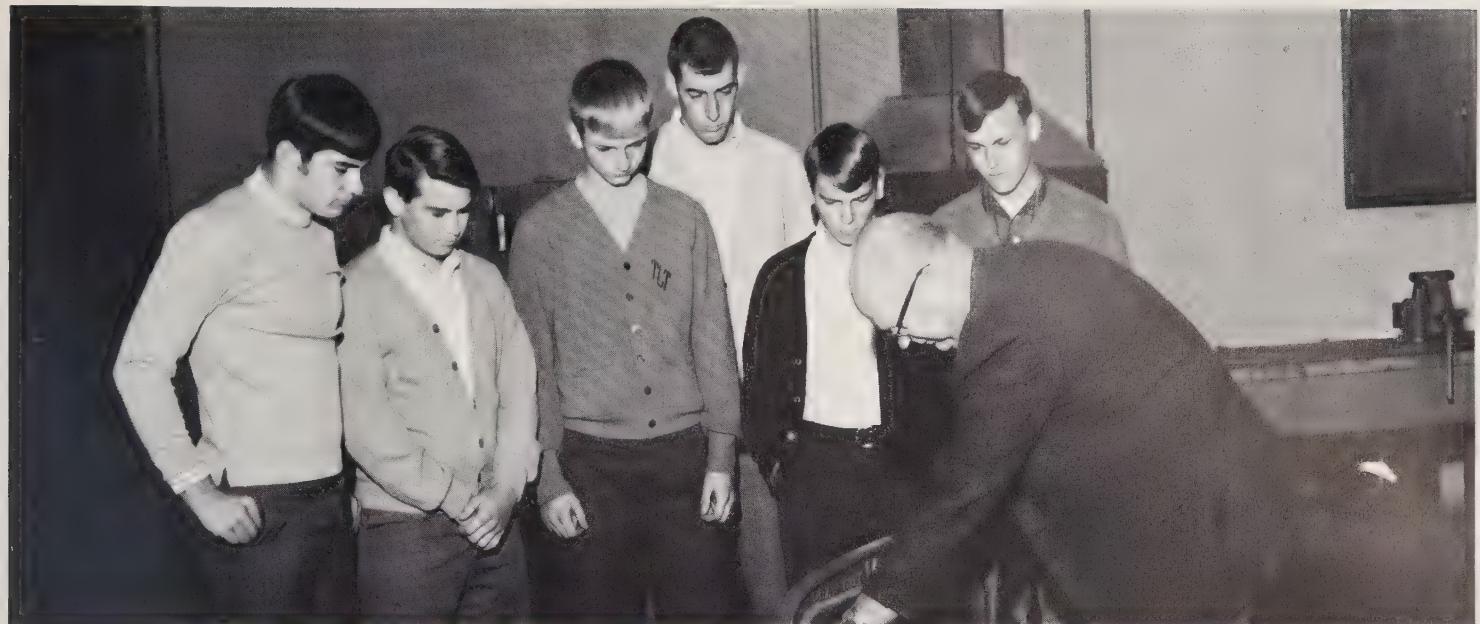

Mr. Adams not only sponsors the FFA but also films football and basketball games. The films help the players to spot their mistakes and erase them in the future games.

Awards won by the FFA Clubs are displayed in the display case in the foyer of the Vocational Building of Northeast. These awards represent work of all different types performed by the members of the FFA. Congratulations to all these members. Keep up the good work.

As a project, the agriculture classes will overhaul the motor of the school activity bus.

Halftime Holiday: Concert Entertainment Presentation of our Band

This year's band is a brilliant achievement on the part of Mr. Bullard and his students. During halftime, the marching band entertains the Northeast crowd at every home football game. Moving quickly and precisely into unique formations, the band plays different and at times complicated music.

During the basketball season, the pep band plays during intermission between J.V. and Varsity games, and during halftime of the Varsity game giving a relaxing change to ease tensions for a few minutes. Band specialties include holiday concerts, the annual Christmas parade, and the Azalea Festival. This year, hopes of the band members have risen in anticipation of going to and participating in the Mardi Gras celebration in New Orleans.

This year's Highsteppers presented spectators to home football games with much enjoyment and pleasure through the sight of their dance routines. They have worked hard to organize to the music the band will play that Friday night. The Highsteppers are left to right, first row: Diane Britt,

baton drills and routines using fire, flag, and regular batons, these girls caused much wonderment in spectators and much envy in onlooking fellow students.

Advisor, sponsor, and instructor, Mr. Frank Bullard listens to the tape recording of the band made during practice to get an idea of the way the music will sound to spectators in the stands. The appreciation and thanks of the Aries Staff go out to you, Mr. Bullard.

"Practice Makes Perfect"

Mrs. Richmond leads chorus members in warm-up exercises.

Practice, practice, and more practice seems to be the essence of a good musical group. It seems to be a never-ending job within class and out of class practices. Mrs. Richmond drills them daily on the musical scales, harmony, tone, and clarity of words. All of the hard work is worthwhile, when choruses receive a hardy and much appreciated applause or a standing ovation from their audience.

This year's choral program consisted of a Mixed Chorus and a Girls Chorus. Lasting impressions were left on the student body as they presented their seasonal entertainment. They always managed to add that extra spice to the joy of the season, whether it was a Christmas musical program with the band or a spring concert. Congratulations go to an outstanding job done by our Choral Department.

Members of the Girls Chorus realize the importance of drilling over and over each new piece of music.

The Choral Department presents the Christmas story in song.

for Musical Harmony

Hard Work and Determination Earn Monogram Letters

Fall-football . . . Winter-basketball and wrestling . . . Spring-baseball and track . . . these seasonal sports and the perennial activity of cheerleading are areas in which Northeast athletes may letter.

It is the goal of every athlete to receive a letter. This letter is earned through much time consuming practices, hard work, and grueling schedules. Because they represent our school in the conference, the athletes must be the "cream of the crop." It is important to choose the most capable students to participate in sports because we encounter tough competition.

Good sportsmanship, clean play, precise coordination, strict co-operation, and teamwork are traits of the Monogram Club members. These qualities round out the personalities and maturity of the athletes on whom the reputation of the school depends.

The Monogram Club symbols are the letter, stars, and the monogram jacket. Members display these symbols proudly; they have reason to. Good luck to all Monogram Club members. Keep up the good work.

A pom pom, baseball glove, track starting block, football kicking tee, basketball, and wrestling head-gear-protector are all representations of the departments of the Monogram Club.

V.I.C.A.: Fun with Experience from I.C.T.

The I.C.T. (Industrial Co-operative Training) Department of the V.I.C.A. (Vocational Industrial Clubs of America) of Northeast gives students an opportunity to gain experience through "on the job training." This program enables students to decide whether they want to make a career of their present job or not. V.I.C.A. not only provides the student with money, but also allows him to earn credits toward graduation.

The first year in I.C.T. prepares a student for employment. Students learn many of the skills and techniques necessary to becoming an asset to a firm. Students broaden their knowledge and ideas about the "working world" through two years of I.C.T. Good luck to I.C.T. students in their vocations.

This year the I.C.T. department sponsored a student-faculty basketball game. There were two games, ladies vs. VICA girls, and men vs. VICA boys. The teachers defeated the students in both games.

Top: Darlene Anders observes and assists D.D.S. M. Ray Hunter as he performs dental operations on patients. Bottom: Jerry Melvin with his supervisor, J.C. Dean, sets up type for an assignment he has been given.

This year's sponsor and advisor of the ICT is Mr. R.M. Blair, a former Varsity Basketball coach of Northeast. Mr. Blair gives much time and effort to the success and reputation of Northeast's working ICT students. Many thanks to you, Mr. Blair.

Skilled Draftsmen—Need of the World

For the first time in Northeast history we have the Drafting Club, a part of V.I.C.A. It is small at the present time but will eventually expand. Members of the Drafting Club strive to increase their size by arousing students who are interested in drafting. Last year a county-wide contest for drafting students was held. Any student wishing to enter this contest presented his works to be judged. Participants from Northeast left with numerous awards and ribbons for various works in various fields.

A creative imagination, knowledge of drafting, good quality drawing materials and equipment, up-to-date information on new techniques, precise measurements, correct line weights and a desire to construct useful materials are essential for top notch draftsmen.

The fields of drafting include architects and engineers.

There is a great demand for experienced draftsmen. Each day the demand for these professionals grows stronger but the demand is never completely filled.

Ronnie Whitt, Ricky Silvestri, Calvin Clark, Donald Sipe, David Westmoreland, Clay Gardner.

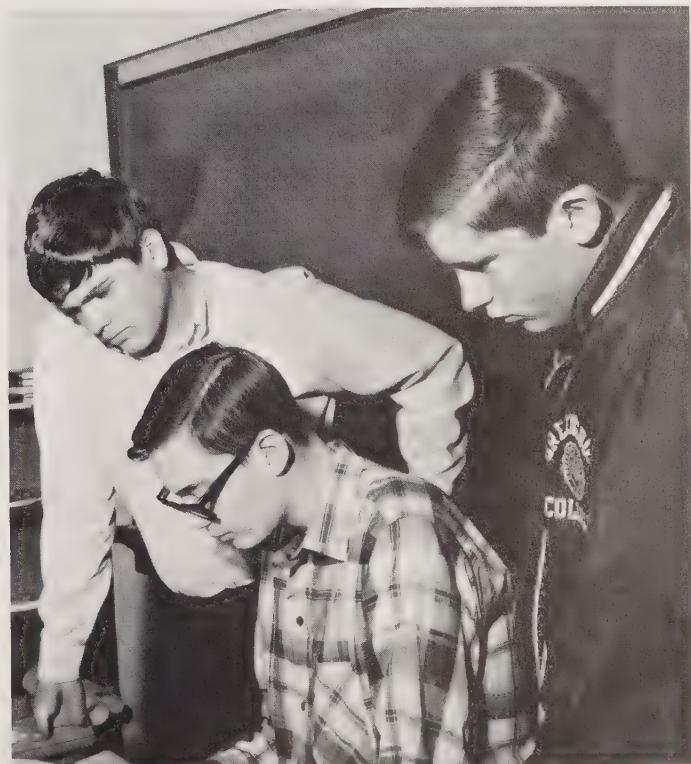

The sponsor and advisor of the Drafting Club is Mr. John Huffman. Mr. Huffman, being very enthusiastic about the club, enlightens it by presenting the members with a broad range of knowledge concerning drafting techniques.

Mr. Huffman displays drawings to his students in order to give them some of his ideas on drafting.

Beginner drafting students need the following instruments to start studying the drafting course: drawing board, T-square, paper, triangles, lettering template, erasing shield, protractor, French curve, erasers, compass, dividers, inking pen, pencils, and architect's scale.

D.E.C.A. Students Gain Practical Experience

The Distributive Education Club is a part of a nation wide organization set up to give students a look into the field of the distribution of products. Students are employed by firms within the Greensboro district on a part time basis or a second shift to exhibit their talents before their employers. These students are allowed to work in order to show their capabilities as future businessmen.

Participating in conferences and contests set up for the D.E.C.A. clubs, the D.E.C.A. students are able to display their achievements and knowledge and to exchange ideas. Through these activities our Deca club brings back many honors and awards.

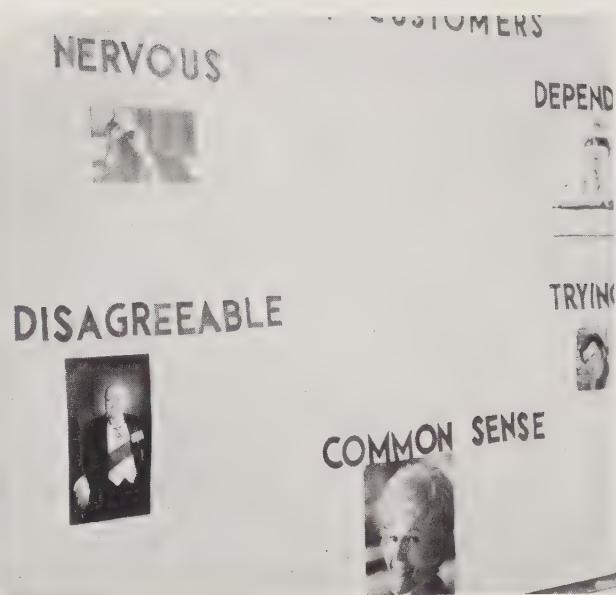

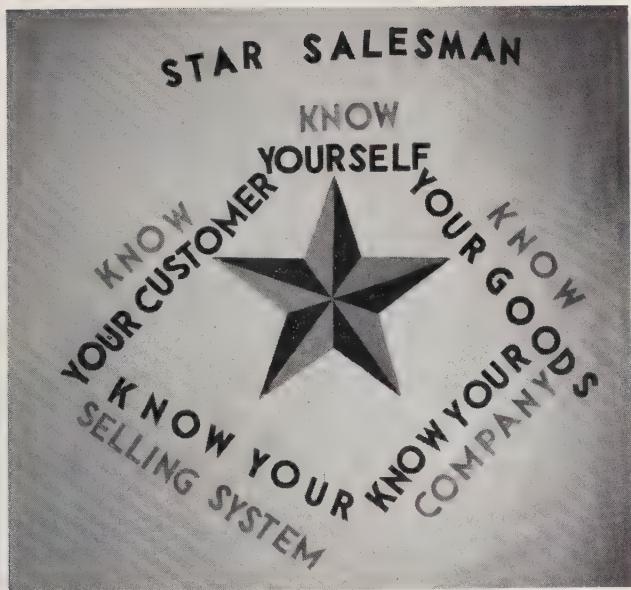

The annual employer-employee banquet is a very gala affair sponsored, paid for, and hosted by the D.E.C.A. members. The students struggle through money-making projects to pay the bill at the banquet.

Bulletin boards are centered around the business world. D. E. students receive ideas about various vocations outside of the school.

In January Mr. Payne left Northeast to fill his office in the House of Representatives. Replacing Mr. Payne is Mr. Farmer. Mr. Farmer assumed the responsibility of teaching students informative knowledge necessary in the field of distribution.

The D. E. officer induction ceremony is anxious and rewarding for those who have assumed the responsibility of holding offices.

The initiation of students into the D.E.C.A. is a festive and jovial time for everyone. The initiation is rather hectic and confused.

Ramrodders continue

Over dry, wet, narrow, wide, dirt, asphalt, straight, curvy, hilly, flat, two-lane, three-lane, four-lane, bustling or lonely roads go the Northeast Ramrodders every day of the school year. Carrying students to and from school, the Ramrodders are always alert and observant, wary of the dangers to which they are continually subjected.

Bus reports must be filled out to record monthly activities. These reports require time and effort on the part of the bus drivers. Realizing that these reports are part of their job, the Ramrodders struggle through them.

The Aries Staff expresses appreciation to all the Ramrodders.

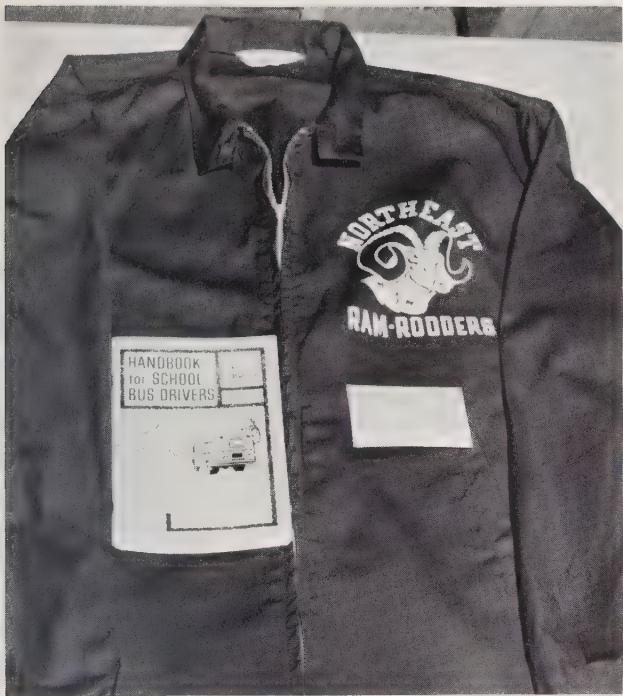

Buses stand ready for the departure from school to return the students home in the afternoon.

to take Charge

There are three objects which interest every Bus Club member. First is the bus drivers manual from which members must have studied and passed the written test. Having passed the written test, each member takes the driving test to obtain his operator's bus license. The bus jacket, the third object, is optional but is desired by most members.

Officers of the '68-'69 Bus Club are: President - Nathan Watlington, middle top; Vice President - Eugene Lamb, top right; Assistant Secretary and Treasurer - Donna Rumley, bottom left; Reporter - Pat Smith, bottom right; Assistant Reporter - Wade Blackwell, top left.

The sponsor of the Bus Club this year is Mr. Howard Jones. Mr. Jones checks to see that each bus arrives safely each day. He not only reports any repairs necessary on the buses but checks bus reports and files time slips to pay the drivers.

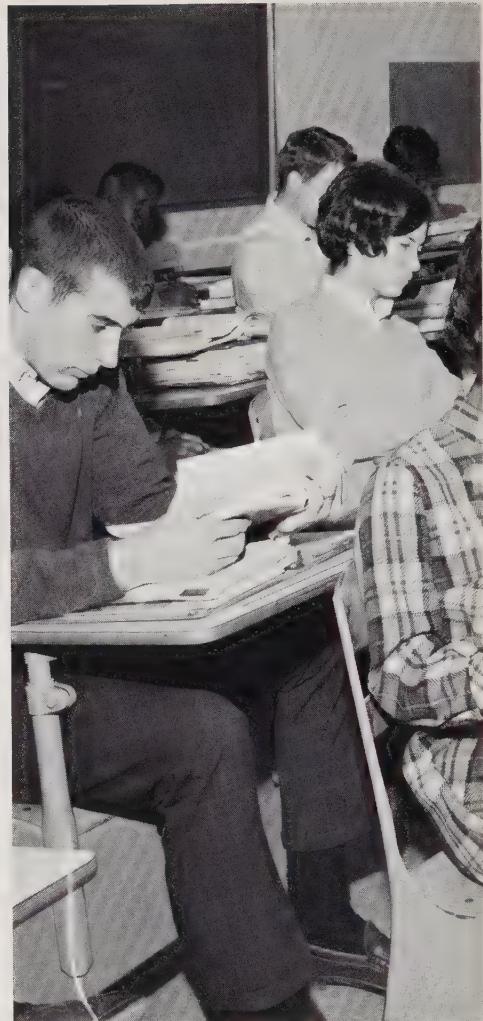

Four days down and one to go. Exhausted students leave for their buses for the return trip home. Just one more day and ... the weekend!

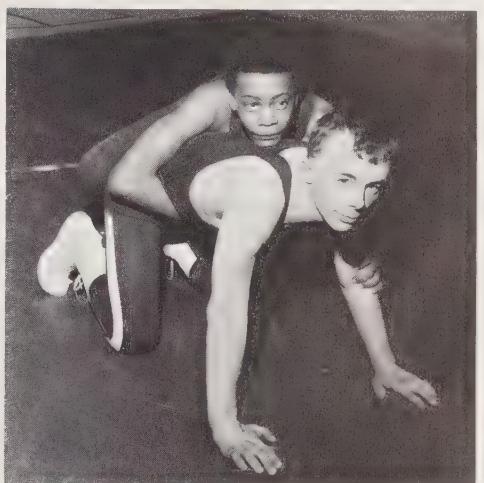

Mr. Webster, the bus driving instructor, teaches applicants textbook as well as driving instruction. Those who pass to Mr. Webster's satisfaction receive their bus licenses and assume the responsibilities of bus drivers.

PERSONALITIES

As The School Matures,

The Sophomore class officers are, right to left: President, Mike Cobb; Vice President Kathy Warren; Secretary, Jackie Osborne; Treasurer, Sarah Jo Bevill.

Sophomores add "flavor" to Northeast by their determination, eagerness to belong, and their warm personalities. They contribute new and constructive ideas while they become a part of tradition. Sophomores are not afraid to tackle responsibility and participate in numerous functions to thrust ahead. Having reached high school, each Sophomore realizes the importance of his education.

For the first time at Northeast Senior High, Sophomores chose class colors, blue and white, a class flower, the carnation, and a class motto, "We ask not for the world, but only a small place in it." These symbols will remain a part of the Sophomore class until they graduate.

Maturity Is The Key to Leadership

This year's Junior Class officers are: Pat Swann, President; Ralph Sears, Vice-President; Steve Troxler, Treasurer; Sharon Puckett, Secretary.

Aware of the many added responsibilities placed on them, Juniors have become more serious-minded.

Juniors are certainly an asset because they have matured and see life at Northeast in a different perspective than before.

As graduation draws near, Juniors begin to consider seriously a college education. The P.S.A.T. and the S.A.T. prepare students for further education. They discover that scholastic aptitude tests are rather difficult, but are of great importance in deciding who will be accepted in colleges. Also Juniors strive to improve their grades because grades are another factor considered for college entrance.

The Junior class promises good leaders for tomorrow. Juniors are not only willing to submit ideas, but they are also willing to put these ideas into effect.

As a customary practice, the Junior class gives the Seniors a Junior-Senior prom. Juniors strive diligently to make the prom a most enjoyable evening, one that will long be remembered.

December 8, an eminent date, was the day class rings arrived. Beaming with excitement, Juniors proudly flashed their class rings before the eyes of their classmates.

Graduation means Maturity

Senior Officers are Johnny Overman, President; Woody Caligan, Vice President; Cliff Brame, Treasurer; and Debbie Lockamy, Secretary.

The Senior Class of 1968-69 adds another page to the history of Northeast Senior High. Outsiders may consider us as merely another graduating class but we are unique, because we are individuals. We are the recipients of four years of learning and working together. The participation of each Senior in school activities has unified us as a whole. The memories of shared moments of laughter and solemnity will remain with us forever. Through knowledge gained these four years, we have matured to a level of acquiring pride for ourselves and for our school. We the students, represent Northeast.

As individuals we strive to accomplish that certain goal in our lives which makes us successful. Thus, the Senior Class of 1968-69 is guided by its motto: "One thing is forever good, that one thing is success."

The Class colors are white and green, symbolizing purity and growth in mind, body, and spirit.

With exhaustive preparation I face the transition
From inexperience and indecision
To discovery and comprehension . . .
With perseverance I accept the complexity;
I become accelerated with the movement of initiation,
My thoughts are stimulated by challenge.
Reaching out with courage to achieve success,
I seek to defy any hinderence of my determination.
I am elated with youth-joy.
Throughout the testing destination
I stand invincible.

I am graduating now and a lot has changed since my freshman year. Life follows along in a series of troughs and crests, as always. The trauma of a perpetual search for me is about to begin. I have to lead a double life of outward normalcy and inner complexity. The questioning remains within me and sometimes is noticeable. I accept existence but the duality is still a bother.

I have experienced the general growth and change. Much idealistic exurbance is replaced with a tread of maturity. I must strive to find an identity.

Thus,

Sophomores, Juniors, and Seniors create the portraiture of Northeast personalities at work, at play, in moments of fantasy or preparation for the future.

All students face the experience of investigating the unknown . . .

. . . Exploring the new . . .

. . . Pausing for new experiences . . .

. . . Striving for success . . .

1969 ARIES salutes Outstanding Seniors

Every year the student body of Northeast selects several of its seniors as Outstanding Seniors. These students represent ambition, hard work, sincerity, and determination. ARIES is proud to honor the following students as Outstanding Seniors of 1969: Hope Harrell, John Overman, Pat Roof, Rod Troxler, Bill Stanfield, Teresa Coleman, Patti Apple, Donna Rumley, Mary Lankford, and Debbie Lockamy.

Always gay and full of humor, Hope Harrell adds joy to every life she touches. She is always eager to help others and participates in many extracurricular activities. Aries honors a unique person, Hope Harrell.

Superior Achievers

Johnny Overman has a quick wit and warm smile that leaves a person laughing. His participation in sports and extracurricular activities add spice to his personality. Johnny is well liked by all the student body and will long be remembered.

Pat Roof, always willing to chat and to assist, has made many lasting friendships at Northeast. Her sincerity and quiet humor warm the hearts of all who know her. She has proven to be an Outstanding Senior.

Enthusiasm for sports, an experienced athletic ability, a wonderful personality and a charming smile make Rod Troxler one of the select seniors. For four years Rod has participated in all sports and has stood out in each of them. These qualities make him a great guy to know.

Bill Stanfield knows how it feels to participate in sports and get hurt. But for three years Bill played without injuries. Bill has a wonderful personality, great character and wit and always lends a helping hand. His hands were filled this year with the Aries but he made it a success.

Skill . . . Determination . . . Strength of Character . . . All traits of Outstanding Seniors

Charm and quiet sincerity as well as a determination to serve others have distinguished Teresa Coleman as an Outstanding Senior. A quick mind and a sharp wit have endeared her forever to the hearts of all who have known her.

Boundless energy and unequaled enthusiasm have made Patti Apple one of the most popular girls at Northeast. As chief cheerleader, her inexhaustible school spirit inspires others at all sports events. Aries salutes Patti Apple.

Vivacious and energetic, Donna Rumley greets everyone with a smile and a warm "hello." Her sincerity and genuine affection for everyone has won her the admiration and friendship of all who know her. Aries honors Donna Rumley as a deserving senior.

The warm and sincere smile of Mary Lankford brightens the lives of everyone at Northeast. Gay and carefree yet aware of responsibilities, she is a welcome companion to all. She is truly one of the prominent students at our school.

Embodiment of School Spirit . . . Vitality . . . Hope for the Future

Debbie Lockamy always greets everyone with a smile which is characteristic of her personality. Debbie was chosen as an Outstanding Senior regarding her wonderful school participation. She is active as a cheerleader, whose job is to inspire school spirit, and is a member of the numerous clubs throughout the school.

Beauty, honor, charm, dedication . . . these words are synonymous with Miss Aries. Her glowing personality and inner beauty brightens the lives of others. Her congeniality and refreshing willingness to help others have endeared her to all who know her, and she will remain forever in her friends' hearts. With great pride the Senior Class salutes Donna Kay Rumley, Miss Aries, 1969.

Vivacious and energetic, Donna Kay personifies the exuberance of youth.

Quiet and thoughtful at times, Donna reflects the purity and inner beauty which has endeared her to her friends.

Donna Kay Rumley

Honor . . . Beauty . . . Devotion . . . Miss Aries

Always full of vitality, Donna Kay's joyful personality is contagious to others.

The virtues of Miss Aries are wonderfully embodied in Donna Kay Rumley.

A responsible girl, Donna is one of our most careful bus drivers.

WHICHEVER YOUR INSURANCE NEED . . .

each, or a combination of several, may be solved through Southern Life's wide range of life and health insurance plans, offering liberal policy options, custom-designed to your specific requirements.

Southern Life representatives dependably serve our policyowners and beneficiaries through ninety-one branch offices in twelve states and the District of Columbia. They are well-trained to show you the way to a secure future, while responding to today's growing demands.

In helping you plan your family's financial security, your local Southern Life representative will show how you can get the most from your insurance dollar, relating your insurance program to your future plans, aspirations and hopes. A sound security program will free you from financial worry and help you get on with the business of enjoying life to the fullest in the years ahead.

After a year of hard work, overdue deadlines, unwritten copy, typing and cropping pictures, we the '69 Aries have presented its seventh volume and would like to thank the following for their fine support in helping make this the best yearbook yet.

Mr. John Cullers, who helped us help ourselves. Mr. Cullers is a wonderful advisor and no one any better to work for and with.

Mr. L. Sam Dockery, our fine principal, who thought our cover came from "Bonnie & Clyde Days."

Mr. "Whitey" Boswell the photographer with the "mostest" and will remember us as "mind-stickers."

Mr. Roger Bednarick and Mrs. Walker from Hunter Publishing Company who added the professional touch to the Aries.

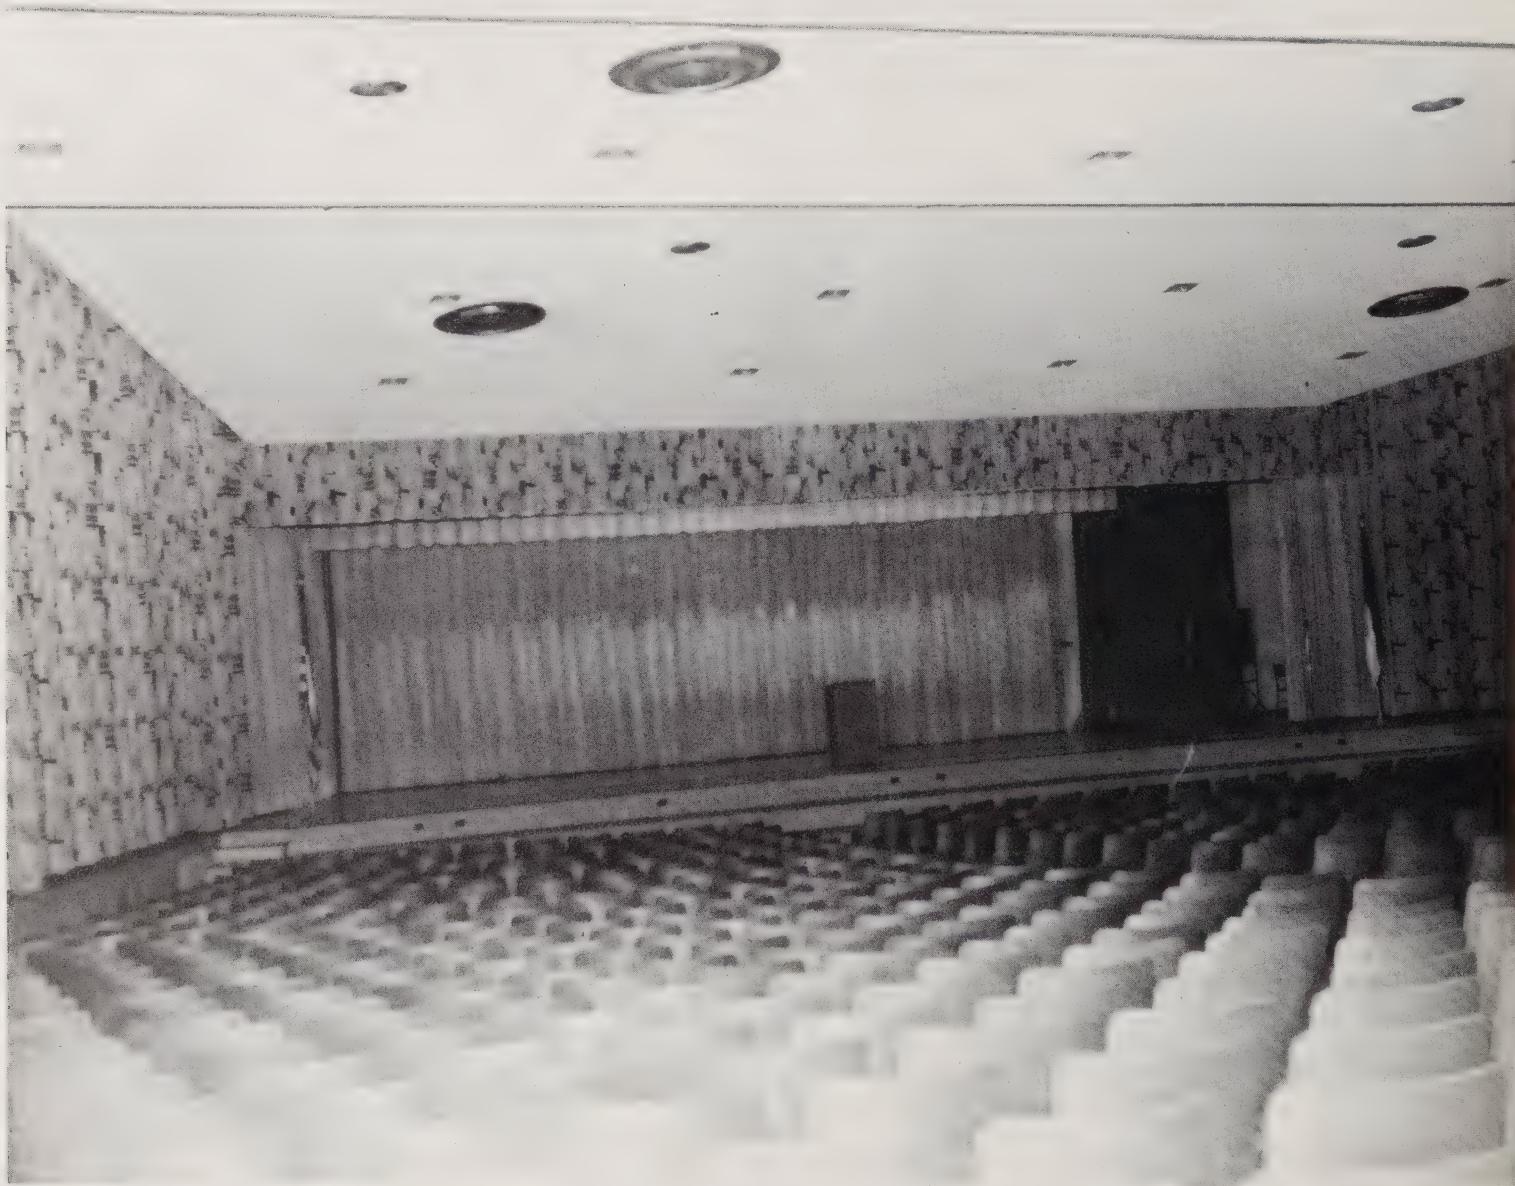

The wonderful faculty who patiently continued classes while half the students were gone.

To the students we thank you for being on time for pictures and being great material for "Growing Adolescents-Maturity."

Bill Stanfield, Editor

Hope Harrell, Business Manager

Charles Myers, Feature Editor

Empty seats but not forgotten occupants.

Crowded halls but no confusion is shown.

Have care and patience.

All lies arrest until another day.

Robert,
I have enjoyed going to the band traps and playing chess with you. As you know, you are one of my best friends. I want to wish you good luck. I'll see you next year.

Robert,
Well, here I am
the Verloose King, slinging out my words with all the viciousness of William F. Buckley Jr. Let me say that it has been a great year being in your classes. We have had a lot of crazy fiery debates. Nevertheless (my spelling is atrocious) we have had a lot of fun. It's been fantastic being in the classes (from English to Algebra) where I can get all the answers from an intelligent Einstein intuit. No serious though you admire Gore Vidal. Good Sincerest wishes. Happy debating next year. Make a million dollars in the future and give it to me. Great luck.

Robert,
It's truly been a pleasure knowing you this year in Geometry and in you're a really nice guy and pretty smart too. Everything I the best belong to you because you deserve it.
Wishes and lots of Good
